THE GROWING CATALOG OF TALIBAN & AL QAEDA MISINFORMATION

Old Faithful in Yellowstone erupts every 76 minutes and Big Ben in London strikes every hour. And just as regularly, it seems, Al Qaeda and the Taliban are making more and more outlandish misstatements.

Every day, as the truth becomes known, the world grows ever more weary of Al Qaeda and Taliban propaganda.

SAMPLES OF MISSTATEMENTS

CLAIM: The Taliban attack the U.N. for not helping the Afghan people.

☑ FACT: The Taliban continue to harrass and beat aid workers and steal food, medicine and other humanitarian supplies intended for the innocent Afghan people. The spokesman for the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees, Peter Kessler, has said, "What we need is the cooperation of the Taliban. The UNHCR and our agencies have had our vehicles stolen, our offices taken over, and our staff beaten. The needs inside Afghanistan are absolutely enormous. People are suffering. Aid agencies need the environment in which to work, and right now it is mainly the Taliban who can give us that space."

☑ FACT: The Taliban are actually hijacking humanitarian convoys for military purposes. The November 6 Washington Post reports, "A truck in a convoy purportedly on a humanitarian mission to deliver food tipped over, and crates of tank and mortar shells could be seen spilling to the ground underneath a thin layer of flour."

CLAIM: The Taliban accuse the U.S. of targeting civilians.

☑ FACT: The Taliban are actually placing their military assets near civilian areas and using innocent Afghans as human shields for their oppressive regime. The November 6 Washington Post reports that the Taliban are actually placing military assets in mosques and across the street from hospitals and innocent people's homes. Taliban commanders have also taken over humanitarian aid facilities for military purposes. A senior officer tells the Washington Post, "Whole villages are being used as human shields by the Taliban to protect their large stockpiles of ammunition and weapons hidden in nearby caves."

CLAIM: The Taliban claim repeatedly to have shot down American B-52 bombers and helicopters.

☑ FACT: The Taliban have shot down no American B-52 bombers or helicopters.

CLAIM: The Taliban claim that U.S. forces are using chemical and biological weapons.

Dear Ms. Bair:

A political contribution from you, in the form of a check addressed to the Republican National Committee, was mistakenly delivered to the Office of Political Affairs at the White House. We are returning this check to you because government officers and employees may not personally solicit, accept, or receive political contributions, see 5 C.F.R. 734.303(a), although government officers and employees are free, of course, to make political contributions, see 5 C.F.R. 734.208(a). Please feel free to contact me or Brett Kavanaugh on my staff if you have any questions.

Sincerely yours,

Alberto R. Gonzales
Counsel to the President

Ms. Sheila Bair

- TheTaliban have begun placing military assets in mosques and across the street from hospitals and innocent people's homes. (Washington Post, 11/6/01)
- "The UNHCR and our partner agencies have had our vehicles stolen, our offices taken over and our staff beaten," (Peter Kessler, UNHCR, on the treatment of international aid organizations under the Taliban; BBC News Online. 6/11/01)

In Case You Missed It...

- The U.S. is using all available means and every route to get food to needy Afghans before winter sets in.
- As winter rapidly approaches, the U.S., through the World Food Program, is working hard to pre-position large quantities of food in mountainous areas.
- The World Food Program is currently delivering aid to Afghanistan through five corridors: Peshawar and Quetta, Pakistan, Iran, Turkmenistan and Tajikistan.
- To help complete the delivery of 32,000 tons of food to Afghanis living in mountainous areas before winter sets in, USAID provided the World Food Program with $5 million to purchase 160 additional trucks.

Message

Today President Bush will announce that the U.S. government is shutting down major elements of the terrorists' international financial network.

- We are pressing the war against terror on every front -- from the mountains of Afghanistan to the bank accounts of terrorist organizations.
- The world's financial institutions have been put on notice -- If you do business with terrorists, if you support or sponsor them, you will not do business with the USA.
- The shadowy financial networks that support terror often present themselves as legitimate businesses but they enable money stolen in one country to be transferred to pay for terrorist acts in another.
- By shutting these financial networks down, we disrupt the murderers' work.
- Today's action disrupts al-Qaida's communications, blocks an important source of funds, obtains valuable information, and sends a clear message to global financial institutions: You are with us – or with the terrorists. And if you are with the terrorists, you will face the consequences.
- We fight a hidden enemy. It's an enemy who hides in caves in Afghanistan. And who hides in the shadows within our own society. It's an enemy who can only survive in darkness. Today we have taken another important action to expose the enemy to the light – and to weaken the enemy's ability to threaten innocent life.

Financial Facts

- As of November 6, 112 nations have issued orders to block any accounts found to be connected to international terrorism. (U.S. Department of the Treasury)
- Around the world, 120 accounts connected to international terrorism have already been blocked. (U.S. Department of the Treasury)
- A total of $43.8 million has been blocked so far as part of the war on Terrorism. (U.S. Department of the Treasury)

(Washington Post, 11/6/01)

In Case You Missed It...

- The World Food Program is currently delivering aid to Afghanistan through five corridors: Peshawar and Quetta, Pakistan, Iran, Turkmenistan and Tajikistan.
- To help complete the delivery of 32,000 tons of food to Afghanis living in mountainous areas before winter sets in, USAID provided the World Food Program with $5 million to purchase 160 additional trucks.

Message

Today President Bush will announce that the U.S. government is shutting down major elements of the terrorists' international financial network.

- We are pressing the war against terror on every front -- from the mountains of Afghanistan to the bank accounts of terrorist organizations.
- The world's financial institutions have been put on notice -- If you do business with terrorists, if you support or sponsor them, you will not do business with the USA.
- The shadowy financial networks that support terror often present themselves as legitimate businesses but they enable money stolen in one country to be transferred to pay for terrorist acts in another.
- By shutting these financial networks down, we disrupt the murderers' work.
- Today's action disrupts al-Qaida's communications, blocks an important source of funds, obtains valuable information, and sends a clear message to global financial institutions: You are with us – or with the terrorists. And if you are with the terrorists, you will face the consequences.
- We fight a hidden enemy. It's an enemy who hides in caves in Afghanistan. And who hides in the shadows within our own society. It's an enemy who can only survive in darkness. Today we have taken another important action to expose the enemy to the light – and to weaken the enemy's ability to threaten innocent life.

Financial Facts

- As of November 6, 112 nations have issued orders to block any accounts found to be connected to international terrorism. (U.S. Department of the Treasury)
- Around the world, 120 accounts connected to international terrorism have already been blocked. (U.S. Department of the Treasury)
- A total of $43.8 million has been blocked so far as part of the war on Terrorism. (U.S. Department of the Treasury)

Recent Key Quotes & Developments

- "But what is happening now, under bin Laden's leadership, is a true disaster to the Islamic nation..." (Bater Mohammad Ali Wardam, Al-Dustour newspaper (Jordan), 11/6/01)
- TheTaliban have begun placing military assets in mosques and across the street from hospitals and innocent people's homes. Taliban commanders have also taken over humanitarian aid facilities for military purposes. A senior officer told the Washington Post, "Whole villages are being used as human shields by the Taliban to protect their large stockpiles of ammunition and weapons hidden in nearby caves." (Washington Post, 11/6/01)
- "The UNHCR and our partner agencies have had our vehicles stolen, our offices taken over and our staff beaten," (Peter Kessler, UNHCR, on the treatment of international aid organizations under the Taliban; BBC News Online. 6/11/01)

In Case You Missed It...

- Yesterday, USAID announced that over the next several days, the U.N. World Food Program will fly three to four flights a day between Pakistan and Turkmenistan. The wheat from those flights, donated by the U.S government, will then be trucked into Northern Afghanistan.
- The U.S. is using all available means and every route to get food to needy Afghans before winter sets in.
- As winter rapidly approaches, the U.S., through the World Food Program, is working hard to pre-position large quantities of food in mountainous areas.
- The World Food Program is currently delivering aid to Afghanistan through five corridors: Peshawar and Quetta, Pakistan, Iran, Turkmenistan and Tajikistan.
- To help complete the delivery of 32,000 tons of food to Afghanis living in mountainous areas before winter sets in, USAID provided the World Food Program with $5 million to purchase 160 additional trucks.

Message

Today President Bush will announce that the U.S. government is shutting down major elements of the terrorists' international financial network.

- We are pressing the war against terror on every front -- from the mountains of Afghanistan to the bank accounts of terrorist organizations.
- The world's financial institutions have been put on notice -- If you do business with terrorists, if you support or sponsor them, you will not do business with the USA.
- The shadowy financial networks that support terror often present themselves as legitimate businesses but they enable money stolen in one country to be transferred to pay for terrorist acts in another.
- By shutting these financial networks down, we disrupt the murderers' work.
- Today's action disrupts al-Qaida's communications, blocks an important source of funds, obtains valuable information, and sends a clear message to global financial institutions: You are with us – or with the terrorists. And if you are with the terrorists, you will face the consequences.
- We fight a hidden enemy. It's an enemy who hides in caves in Afghanistan. And who hides in the shadows within our own society. It's an enemy who can only survive in darkness. Today we have taken another important action to expose the enemy to the light – and to weaken the enemy's ability to threaten innocent life.

Financial Facts

- As of November 6, 112 nations have issued orders to block any accounts found to be connected to international terrorism. (U.S. Department of the Treasury)
- Around the world, 120 accounts connected to international terrorism have already been blocked. (U.S. Department of the Treasury)
- A total of $43.8 million has been blocked so far as part of the war on Terrorism. (U.S. Department of the Treasury)

The U.S. government is working overtime to pre-position food, blankets and other humanitarian aid for the innocent Afghan people before their harsh winter sets in. Attached are (1) a 1-pager that gives examples of recent actions taken by USAID, DOD and others, and (2) today's humanitarian fact sheet from USAID. Please forward to your lists immediately. Thanks.

U.S. PRE-POSITIONS HUMANITARIAN AID TO HELP INNOCENT AFGHANS PREPARE FOR HARSH WINTER

Winter is quickly approaching in Afghanistan. Heavy snows will soon begin falling, making it difficult for humanitarian relief convoys to reach many parts of the country.

Years of civil war, drought, rule by the repressive Taliban regime and the presence of the Al Qaeda network have left Afghanistan with a major humanitarian crisis. In particular, the most vulnerable Afghans -- the more than 10 million children -- are suffering. Almost 1/2 of Afghan children suffer from chronic malnutrition. Millions of innocent Afghans face the threat of starvation.

The US has for years been the largest donor of humanitarian aid to Afghanistan. And with this year's winter approaching in Afghanistan, the US is accelerating its relief activities to get as much food, blankets, and other important relief items to the innocent Afghan people.

As the Afghan winter rapidly approaches, the United States, through the U.N. World Food Program (WFP), is working hard to preposition large quantities of food in mountainous areas. At the beginning of the current crisis, WFP was transporting only 200 metric tons of food aid into Afghanistan per day. This figure is now up to 2,400 metric tons. WFP is moving food directly to areas of need in Afghanistan from Peshawar and Quetta in Pakistan, Iran, Turkmenistan, and Tajikistan. The US has recently taken other key actions to help the Afghan people. For example:

- ☑ To date, the Department of Defense (DOD) has airdropped 1,275,840 Humanitarian Daily Rations (HDRs) valued at $5,486,112 into Afghanistan.
- ☑ The U.S. Agency for International Development (USAID) provided WFP with $5 million for the purchase of approximately 160 trucks to augment the trucking capacity inside Afghanistan and help WFP deliver 32,000 metric tons of food aid to Afghanistan's mountainous areas over the next three to four weeks.
- ☑ USAID provided $6 million to WFP to purchase 15,000 metric tons of wheat from Kazakhstan; the wheat will be transported to Turkmenistan, where it will be bagged for further transport and delivery to the emergency operation in Northern Afghanistan. In addition, USAID recently signed contracts with several Non-Governmental Organizations (NGO's) for the local purchase of another 13,495 metric tons of wheat and other commodities valued at $5.2 million, that will go to the people of Afghanistan.
- ☑ USAID currently delivers food, blankets and other important items to over one-third of the 157 districts in Afghanistan identified by WFP as in need of immediate emergency assistance. Additionally, USAID-funded programs provide relief to over two-thirds of the 55 most-severely affected districts within that group.
- ☑ The U.S. is providing $2 million to WFP to airlift U.S. Government-donated wheat from WFP's warehouse in Quetta, Pakistan to Turkmenabad, Turkmenistan, which has a dangerously low supply of food stocks and needs to re-supply until deliveries from Iran arrive. Over the next several days, WFP aircraft will fly three to four flights a day between Pakistan and Turkmenistan for a total of 30 to 40 flights over a 10-day period. The wheat will then be loaded onto trucks destined for northern Afghanistan, the hunger belt of the country where WFP is seeking to help about three million people stay alive until the harvest next year.
- ☑ On November 5, USAID began the airlift of 200 metric tons of BP-5 High Energy Biscuits, 20,000 wool blankets, 100 rolls of plastic sheeting, and 1 metric ton of sugar via C-17 cargo plane to Ashgabat, Turkmenistan. USAID anticipates completion of the commodity airlift by November 9. The commodities, valued at $751,102, will be transferred to International Organization for Migration (IOM) for distribution in Afghanistan.

OFFICE OF U.S. FOREIGN DISASTER ASSISTANCE (OFDA)
CENTRAL ASIA TASK FORCE

CENTRAL ASIA REGION – Complex Emergency

Note: this Fact Sheet updates previously released Central Asia Region Fact Sheets and Situation Reports.

Numbers Affected

- On November 6, the U.N. High Commissioner for Refugees (UNHCR) reported that approximately 135,000 Afghan refugees have entered Pakistan since September 11. Of these new arrivals, UNHCR believes that 75,000 entered through North West Frontier Province and 60,000 entered through Baluchistan Province.

Afghanistan

- The U.N. Office for the Coordination of Humanitarian Affairs (UNOCHA) has developed a 30-day Operational Emergency Assistance Plan to enhance NGO and U.N. agency planning for humanitarian operations in Afghanistan as well as assistance to Afghan refugees. The plan is designed to create a complete picture of estimated needs inside Afghanistan; a complete picture of which organizations are operating in what areas and sectors; an accountability tool for monitoring performance and achievements; and a mechanism for identifying which areas are inaccessible and why. The plan will be implemented on a 30-day rolling basis, with the first period spanning November 12 through December 12, 2001.
- The World Food Program (WFP) reports that it is continually increasing its cross-border deliveries of food aid into Afghanistan. At the beginning of the current crisis, WFP was transporting only 200 metric tons (MT) of food aid into Afghanistan per day. This figure is now up to 2,400 MT. The increase in the rate of transport is due to a new strategy of bypassing urban centers and moving the food directly to areas of need. In addition, the increase is due to the utilization of five transport corridors. WFP is hopeful that it will soon be operating at a capacity to meet the transport requirement of 52,000 MT per month.
- However, distribution of the food will be difficult since several highly vulnerable districts remain inaccessible due to insecurity. Some 27,000 MT of food is required in inaccessible areas to feed 500,000 people who are expected to run short of food by the end of the year. Security conditions in these inaccessible districts (listed in Fact Sheet #21) are deteriorating as a result of banditry, lack of communication, and the ongoing civil war.
- In addition, distribution of the food will be difficult in the mountainous areas of Afghanistan, where 32,000 MT of additional food aid is required over the next three to four weeks to sustain the food-insecure population for the winter. To date, only 7,000 MT of food aid has been delivered to the area.
- To reach the above target, WFP is working to secure trucks that can operate in the deep snow. Furthermore, WFP is planning an airdrop of food in snow-bound areas of northern Afghanistan as a compliment to overland delivery. WFP will use black, snow-proof bags to package the food. WFP plans to establish a base camp at the tip of the Anjuman Pass to coordinate assistance to the area.
- The U.N. reports that many internally displaced persons (IDPs) in the eastern and central regions of Afghanistan are able to find shelter on their own, alleviating some of the burden on humanitarian agencies. This resourcefulness is particularly important given the steady increase in the number of IDPs.
- The U.N. reports that the Taliban's seizure and return of humanitarian offices and assets and forced cessation of humanitarian activities remains inconsistent from one area to another.
- UNHCR remains concerned about the security of aid workers and the protection of IDPs in camps near the borders of Iran and Pakistan. The presence of armed fighters in the vicinity of IDP camps complicates the delivery of humanitarian assistance, and the assurance that aid does not fall into the hands of the Taliban or Northern Alliance. The conscription of young IDP men, who reside in the camps, also concerns UNHCR.
- The second round of national immunization days to vaccinate children against polio began on November 6, and will continue through November 8. Cases of malaria are reported in the provinces of Baghlan, Faryab, Laghman, and Nangahar. The World Health Organization is moving additional supplies of malaria prophylaxis into Afghanistan to combat the disease.
- UNOCHA reports that a mine action NGO is providing emergency mine awareness training to people in the Herat area. According to UNOCHA, the U.N. Demining Program has had 100 vehicles stolen from its office in Afghanistan, complicating mine-related activities throughout the country.

Pakistan

- WFP announced on November 7 that two Ilyushin cargo aircraft will airlift more than 2,000 MT of food from northern Pakistan to Turkmenabad, Turkmenistan over a 10-day period. From this location, the food will be transported via truck to remote areas of northern Afghanistan. One of the aircraft began transporting food yesterday; the other will begin today. USAID/Food for Peace funding is supporting this operation.

- On November 5, Pakistani authorities allowed approximately 300 women and children to shelter in the registration tents inside the Killi Faizo staging area, near the Chaman border crossing in Baluchistan. Approximately 100 men are waiting outside the site for entrance. UNHCR and Pakistani officials are still negotiating formal approval for the refugees to become part of the camp population. The maximum capacity of the site (approximately 1,600 people) was exceeded last week, leading Pakistani authorities to suspend registration on November 2, and send new arrivals back across the border to Spin Boldak.
- Afghan refugees in Killi Faizo will be transferred to Roghani camp in Baluchistan soon to alleviate overcrowding in Killi Faizo and make way for new arrivals. The current population of Killi Faizo exceeds 2,400 people.
- With the exception of the Killi Faizo site, most refugees are housed in 203 old refugee camps or in private houses with relatives in Peshawar and Quetta. A smaller number of refugees are located in Karachi and Islamabad.
- UNHCR reports that the number of "invisible" refugees is increasing, and that identification of them and delivery of assistance to them is becoming more problematic.

Region

- Shelter Now International-U.S. reports logistical delays in transporting relief supplies through the Tajikistan/Afghanistan border. UNOCHA is aware of the situation and is working with the Government of Tajikistan to resolve the issue.

U.S. Government Activities

New Actions

- From November 6-8, the U.S. Department of Defense (DOD) will airlift the following USAID/OFDA commodities from Pisa, Italy to Ashgabat, Turkmenistan aboard C-17 aircraft: 20,000 wool blankets, 100 rolls of plastic sheeting, 200 MT of BP-5 High Energy Biscuits, and 1 MT of sugar. The commodities, valued at $751,102, will be consigned to the International Organization for Migration (IOM) for distribution in Afghanistan.
- USAID/Disaster Assistance Response Team (DART) members in Uzbekistan are conducting a logistical assessment of Termez in coordination with the U.N. and NGOs working in the area.
- To date, DOD has airdropped 1,275,840 Humanitarian Daily Rations (HDRs), valued at $5,486,112, into Afghanistan.

Disaster Declarations & Background

- On October 4, 2001, Assistant Secretary of State for South Asian Affairs Christina B. Rocca redeclared a complex humanitarian disaster for Afghanistan for FY 2002.
- On October 10, 2001, U.S. Chargé d'Affaires James A. Boughner declared a disaster for Tajikistan due to drought.

The U.S. government is working overtime to pre-position food, blankets and other humanitarian aid for the innocent Afghan people before their harsh winter sets in. Attached are (1) a 1-pager that gives examples of recent actions taken by USAID, DOD and others, and (2) today's humanitarian fact sheet from USAID. Please forward to your lists immediately. Thanks.

U.S. PRE-POSITIONS HUMANITARIAN AID TO HELP INNOCENT AFGHANS PREPARE FOR HARSH WINTER

Winter is quickly approaching in Afghanistan. Heavy snows will soon begin falling, making it difficult for humanitarian relief convoys to reach many parts of the country.

Years of civil war, drought, rule by the repressive Taliban regime and the presence of the Al Qaeda network have left Afghanistan with a major humanitarian crisis. In particular, the most vulnerable Afghans -- the more than 10 million children -- are suffering. Almost 1/2 of Afghan children suffer from chronic malnutrition. Millions of innocent Afghans face the threat of starvation.

The US has for years been the largest donor of humanitarian aid to Afghanistan. And with this year's winter approaching in Afghanistan, the US is accelerating its relief activities to get as much food, blankets, and other important relief items to the innocent Afghan people.

As the Afghan winter rapidly approaches, the United States, through the U.N. World Food Program (WFP), is working hard to preposition large quantities of food in mountainous areas. At the beginning of the current crisis, WFP was transporting only 200 metric tons of food aid into Afghanistan per day. This figure is now up to 2,400 metric tons. WFP is moving food directly to areas of need in Afghanistan from Peshawar and Quetta in Pakistan, Iran, Turkmenistan, and Tajikistan. The US has recently taken other key actions to help the Afghan people. For example:

- ☑ To date, the Department of Defense (DOD) has airdropped 1,275,840 Humanitarian Daily Rations (HDRs) valued at $5,486,112 into Afghanistan.
- ☑ The U.S. Agency for International Development (USAID) provided WFP with $5 million for the purchase of approximately 160 trucks to augment the trucking capacity inside Afghanistan and help WFP deliver 32,000 metric tons of food aid to Afghanistan's mountainous areas over the next three to four weeks.
- ☑ USAID provided $6 million to WFP to purchase 15,000 metric tons of wheat from Kazakhstan; the wheat will be transported to Turkmenistan, where it will be bagged for further transport and delivery to the emergency operation in Northern Afghanistan. In addition, USAID recently signed contracts with several Non-Governmental Organizations (NGO's) for the local purchase of another 13,495 metric tons of wheat and other commodities valued at $5.2 million, that will go to the people of Afghanistan.
- ☑ USAID currently delivers food, blankets and other important items to over one-third of the 157 districts in Afghanistan identified by WFP as in need of immediate emergency assistance. Additionally, USAID-funded programs provide relief to over two-thirds of the 55 most-severely affected districts within that group.
- ☑ The U.S. is providing $2 million to WFP to airlift U.S. Government-donated wheat from WFP's warehouse in Quetta, Pakistan to Turkmenabad, Turkmenistan, which has a dangerously low supply of food stocks and needs to re-supply until deliveries from Iran arrive. Over the next several days, WFP aircraft will fly three to four flights a day between Pakistan and Turkmenistan for a total of 30 to 40 flights over a 10-day period. The wheat will then be loaded onto trucks destined for northern Afghanistan, the hunger belt of the country where WFP is seeking to help about three million people stay alive until the harvest next year.
- ☑ On November 5, USAID began the airlift of 200 metric tons of BP-5 High Energy Biscuits, 20,000 wool blankets, 100 rolls of plastic sheeting, and 1 metric ton of sugar via C-17 cargo plane to Ashgabat, Turkmenistan. USAID anticipates completion of the commodity airlift by November 9. The commodities, valued at $751,102, will be transferred to International Organization for Migration (IOM) for distribution in Afghanistan.

CENTRAL ASIA TASK FORCE

CENTRAL ASIA REGION – Complex Emergency

Note: this Fact Sheet updates previously released Central Asia Region Fact Sheets and Situation Reports.

Numbers Affected

- On November 6, the U.N. High Commissioner for Refugees (UNHCR) reported that approximately 135,000 Afghan refugees have entered Pakistan since September 11. Of these new arrivals, UNHCR believes that 75,000 entered through North West Frontier Province and 60,000 entered through Baluchistan Province.

Afghanistan

- The U.N. Office for the Coordination of Humanitarian Affairs (UNOCHA) has developed a 30-day Operational Emergency Assistance Plan to enhance NGO and U.N. agency planning for humanitarian operations in Afghanistan as well as assistance to Afghan refugees. The plan is designed to create a complete picture of estimated needs inside Afghanistan; a complete picture of which organizations are operating in what areas and sectors; an accountability tool for monitoring performance and achievements; and a mechanism for identifying which areas are inaccessible and why. The plan will be implemented on a 30-day rolling basis, with the first period spanning November 12 through December 12, 2001.
- The World Food Program (WFP) reports that it is continually increasing its cross-border deliveries of food aid into Afghanistan. At the beginning of the current crisis, WFP was transporting only 200 metric tons (MT) of food aid into Afghanistan per day. This figure is now up to 2,400 MT. The increase in the rate of transport is due to a new strategy of bypassing urban centers and moving the food directly to areas of need. In addition, the increase is due to the utilization of five transport corridors. WFP is hopeful that it will soon be operating at a capacity to meet the transport requirement of 52,000 MT per month.
- However, distribution of the food will be difficult since several highly vulnerable districts remain inaccessible due to insecurity. Some 27,000 MT of food is required in inaccessible areas to feed 500,000 people who are expected to run short of food by the end of the year. Security conditions in these inaccessible districts (listed in Fact Sheet #21) are deteriorating as a result of banditry, lack of communication, and the ongoing civil war.
- In addition, distribution of the food will be difficult in the mountainous areas of Afghanistan, where 32,000 MT of additional food aid is required over the next three to four weeks to sustain the food-insecure population for the winter. To date, only 7,000 MT of food aid has been delivered to the area.
- To reach the above target, WFP is working to secure trucks that can operate in the deep snow. Furthermore, WFP is planning an airdrop of food in snow-bound areas of northern Afghanistan as a compliment to overland delivery. WFP will use black, snow-proof bags to package the food. WFP plans to establish a base camp at the tip of the Anjuman Pass to coordinate assistance to the area.
- The U.N. reports that many internally displaced persons (IDPs) in the eastern and central regions of Afghanistan are able to find shelter on their own, alleviating some of the burden on humanitarian agencies. This resourcefulness is particularly important given the steady increase in the number of IDPs.
- The U.N. reports that the Taliban's seizure and return of humanitarian offices and assets and forced cessation of humanitarian activities remains inconsistent from one area to another.
- UNHCR remains concerned about the security of aid workers and the protection of IDPs in camps near the borders of Iran and Pakistan. The presence of armed fighters in the vicinity of IDP camps complicates the delivery of humanitarian assistance, and the assurance that aid does not fall into the hands of the Taliban or Northern Alliance. The conscription of young IDP men, who reside in the camps, also concerns UNHCR.
- The second round of national immunization days to vaccinate children against polio began on November 6, and will continue through November 8. Cases of malaria are reported in the provinces of Baghlan, Faryab, Laghman, and Nangahar. The World Health Organization is moving additional supplies of malaria prophylaxis into Afghanistan to combat the disease.
- UNOCHA reports that a mine action NGO is providing emergency mine awareness training to people in the Herat area. According to UNOCHA, the U.N. Demining Program has had 100 vehicles stolen from its office in Afghanistan, complicating mine-related activities throughout the country.

Pakistan

- WFP announced on November 7 that two Ilyushin cargo aircraft will airlift more than 2,000 MT of food from northern Pakistan to Turkmenabad, Turkmenistan over a 10-day period. From this location, the food will be transported via truck to remote areas of northern Afghanistan. One of the aircraft began transporting food yesterday; the other will begin today. USAID/Food for Peace funding is supporting this operation.

- On November 5, Pakistani authorities allowed approximately 300 women and children to shelter in the registration tents inside the Killi Faizo staging area, near the Chaman border crossing in Baluchistan. Approximately 100 men are waiting outside the site for entrance. UNHCR and Pakistani officials are still negotiating formal approval for the refugees to become part of the camp population. The maximum capacity of the site (approximately 1,600 people) was exceeded last week, leading Pakistani authorities to suspend registration on November 2, and send new arrivals back across the border to Spin Boldak.
- Afghan refugees in Killi Faizo will be transferred to Roghani camp in Baluchistan soon to alleviate overcrowding in Killi Faizo and make way for new arrivals. The current population of Killi Faizo exceeds 2,400 people.
- With the exception of the Killi Faizo site, most refugees are housed in 203 old refugee camps or in private houses with relatives in Peshawar and Quetta. A smaller number of refugees are located in Karachi and Islamabad.
- UNHCR reports that the number of "invisible" refugees is increasing, and that identification of them and delivery of assistance to them is becoming more problematic.

Region

- Shelter Now International-U.S. reports logistical delays in transporting relief supplies through the Tajikistan/Afghanistan border. UNOCHA is aware of the situation and is working with the Government of Tajikistan to resolve the issue.

U.S. Government Activities

New Actions

- From November 6-8, the U.S. Department of Defense (DOD) will airlift the following USAID/OFDA commodities from Pisa, Italy to Ashgabat, Turkmenistan aboard C-17 aircraft: 20,000 wool blankets, 100 rolls of plastic sheeting, 200 MT of BP-5 High Energy Biscuits, and 1 MT of sugar. The commodities, valued at $751,102, will be consigned to the International Organization for Migration (IOM) for distribution in Afghanistan.
- USAID/Disaster Assistance Response Team (DART) members in Uzbekistan are conducting a logistical assessment of Termez in coordination with the U.N. and NGOs working in the area.
- To date, DOD has airdropped 1,275,840 Humanitarian Daily Rations (HDRs), valued at $5,486,112, into Afghanistan.

Disaster Declarations & Background

- On October 4, 2001, Assistant Secretary of State for South Asian Affairs Christina B. Rocca redeclared a complex humanitarian disaster for Afghanistan for FY 2002.
- On October 10, 2001, U.S. Chargé d'Affaires James A. Boughner declared a disaster for Tajikistan due to drought.

The U.S. government is working overtime to pre-position food, blankets and other humanitarian aid for the innocent Afghan people before their harsh winter sets in. Attached are (1) a 1-pager that gives examples of recent actions taken by USAID, DOD and others, and (2) today's humanitarian fact sheet from USAID. Please forward to your lists immediately. Thanks.

U.S. PRE-POSITIONS HUMANITARIAN AID TO HELP INNOCENT AFGHANS PREPARE FOR HARSH WINTER

Winter is quickly approaching in Afghanistan. Heavy snows will soon begin falling, making it difficult for humanitarian relief convoys to reach many parts of the country.

Years of civil war, drought, rule by the repressive Taliban regime and the presence of the Al Qaeda network have left Afghanistan with a major humanitarian crisis. In particular, the most vulnerable Afghans -- the more than 10 million children -- are suffering. Almost 1/2 of Afghan children suffer from chronic malnutrition. Millions of innocent Afghans face the threat of starvation.

The US has for years been the largest donor of humanitarian aid to Afghanistan. And with this year's winter approaching in Afghanistan, the US is accelerating its relief activities to get as much food, blankets, and other important relief items to the innocent Afghan people.

As the Afghan winter rapidly approaches, the United States, through the U.N. World Food Program (WFP), is working hard to preposition large quantities of food in mountainous areas. At the beginning of the current crisis, WFP was transporting only 200 metric tons of food aid into Afghanistan per day. This figure is now up to 2,400 metric tons. WFP is moving food directly to areas of need in Afghanistan from Peshawar and Quetta in Pakistan, Iran, Turkmenistan, and Tajikistan. The US has recently taken other key actions to help the Afghan people. For example:

- ☑ To date, the Department of Defense (DOD) has airdropped 1,275,840 Humanitarian Daily Rations (HDRs) valued at $5,486,112 into Afghanistan.
- ☑ The U.S. Agency for International Development (USAID) provided WFP with $5 million for the purchase of approximately 160 trucks to augment the trucking capacity inside Afghanistan and help WFP deliver 32,000 metric tons of food aid to Afghanistan's mountainous areas over the next three to four weeks.
- ☑ USAID provided $6 million to WFP to purchase 15,000 metric tons of wheat from Kazakhstan; the wheat will be transported to Turkmenistan, where it will be bagged for further transport and delivery to the emergency operation in Northern Afghanistan. In addition, USAID recently signed contracts with several Non-Governmental Organizations (NGO's) for the local purchase of another 13,495 metric tons of wheat and other commodities valued at $5.2 million, that will go to the people of Afghanistan.
- ☑ USAID currently delivers food, blankets and other important items to over one-third of the 157 districts in Afghanistan identified by WFP as in need of immediate emergency assistance. Additionally, USAID-funded programs provide relief to over two-thirds of the 55 most-severely affected districts within that group.
- ☑ The U.S. is providing $2 million to WFP to airlift U.S. Government-donated wheat from WFP's warehouse in Quetta, Pakistan to Turkmenabad, Turkmenistan, which has a dangerously low supply of food stocks and needs to re-supply until deliveries from Iran arrive. Over the next several days, WFP aircraft will fly three to four flights a day between Pakistan and Turkmenistan for a total of 30 to 40 flights over a 10-day period. The wheat will then be loaded onto trucks destined for northern Afghanistan, the hunger belt of the country where WFP is seeking to help about three million people stay alive until the harvest next year.
- ☑ On November 5, USAID began the airlift of 200 metric tons of BP-5 High Energy Biscuits, 20,000 wool blankets, 100 rolls of plastic sheeting, and 1 metric ton of sugar via C-17 cargo plane to Ashgabat, Turkmenistan. USAID anticipates completion of the commodity airlift by November 9. The commodities, valued at $751,102, will be transferred to International Organization for Migration (IOM) for distribution in Afghanistan.

BUREAU FOR HUMANITARIAN RESPONSE (BHR)
CENTRAL ASIA TASK FORCE

CENTRAL ASIA REGION – Complex Emergency

Note: this Fact Sheet updates previously released Central Asia Region Fact Sheets and Situation Reports.

Numbers Affected

- On November 6, the U.N. High Commissioner for Refugees (UNHCR) reported that approximately 135,000 Afghan refugees have entered Pakistan since September 11. Of these new arrivals, UNHCR believes that 75,000 entered through North West Frontier Province and 60,000 entered through Baluchistan Province.

Afghanistan

- The U.N. Office for the Coordination of Humanitarian Affairs (UNOCHA) has developed a 30-day Operational Emergency Assistance Plan to enhance NGO and U.N. agency planning for humanitarian operations in Afghanistan as well as assistance to Afghan refugees. The plan is designed to create a complete picture of estimated needs inside Afghanistan; a complete picture of which organizations are operating in what areas and sectors; an accountability tool for monitoring performance and achievements; and a mechanism for identifying which areas are inaccessible and why. The plan will be implemented on a 30-day rolling basis, with the first period spanning November 12 through December 12, 2001.
- The World Food Program (WFP) reports that it is continually increasing its cross-border deliveries of food aid into Afghanistan. At the beginning of the current crisis, WFP was transporting only 200 metric tons (MT) of food aid into Afghanistan per day. This figure is now up to 2,400 MT. The increase in the rate of transport is due to a new strategy of bypassing urban centers and moving the food directly to areas of need. In addition, the increase is due to the utilization of five transport corridors. WFP is hopeful that it will soon be operating at a capacity to meet the transport requirement of 52,000 MT per month.
- However, distribution of the food will be difficult since several highly vulnerable districts remain inaccessible due to insecurity. Some 27,000 MT of food is required in inaccessible areas to feed 500,000 people who are expected to run short of food by the end of the year. Security conditions in these inaccessible districts (listed in Fact Sheet #21) are deteriorating as a result of banditry, lack of communication, and the ongoing civil war.
- In addition, distribution of the food will be difficult in the mountainous areas of Afghanistan, where 32,000 MT of additional food aid is required over the next three to four weeks to sustain the food-insecure population for the winter. To date, only 7,000 MT of food aid has been delivered to the area.
- To reach the above target, WFP is working to secure trucks that can operate in the deep snow. Furthermore, WFP is planning an airdrop of food in snow-bound areas of northern Afghanistan as a compliment to overland delivery. WFP will use black, snow-proof bags to package the food. WFP plans to establish a base camp at the tip of the Anjuman Pass to coordinate assistance to the area.
- The U.N. reports that many internally displaced persons (IDPs) in the eastern and central regions of Afghanistan are able to find shelter on their own, alleviating some of the burden on humanitarian agencies. This resourcefulness is particularly important given the steady increase in the number of IDPs.
- The U.N. reports that the Taliban's seizure and return of humanitarian offices and assets and forced cessation of humanitarian activities remains inconsistent from one area to another.
- UNHCR remains concerned about the security of aid workers and the protection of IDPs in camps near the borders of Iran and Pakistan. The presence of armed fighters in the vicinity of IDP camps complicates the delivery of humanitarian assistance, and the assurance that aid does not fall into the hands of the Taliban or Northern Alliance. The conscription of young IDP men, who reside in the camps, also concerns UNHCR.
- The second round of national immunization days to vaccinate children against polio began on November 6, and will continue through November 8. Cases of malaria are reported in the provinces of Baghlan, Faryab, Laghman, and Nangahar. The World Health Organization is moving additional supplies of malaria prophylaxis into Afghanistan to combat the disease.
- UNOCHA reports that a mine action NGO is providing emergency mine awareness training to people in the Herat area. According to UNOCHA, the U.N. Demining Program has had 100 vehicles stolen from its office in Afghanistan, complicating mine-related activities throughout the country.

Pakistan

- WFP announced on November 7 that two Ilyushin cargo aircraft will airlift more than 2,000 MT of food from northern Pakistan to Turkmenabad, Turkmenistan over a 10-day period. From this location, the food will be transported via truck to remote areas of northern Afghanistan. One of the aircraft began transporting food yesterday; the other will begin today. USAID/Food for Peace funding is supporting this operation.

- On November 5, Pakistani authorities allowed approximately 300 women and children to shelter in the registration tents inside the Killi Faizo staging area, near the Chaman border crossing in Baluchistan. Approximately 100 men are waiting outside the site for entrance. UNHCR and Pakistani officials are still negotiating formal approval for the refugees to become part of the camp population. The maximum capacity of the site (approximately 1,600 people) was exceeded last week, leading Pakistani authorities to suspend registration on November 2, and send new arrivals back across the border to Spin Boldak.
- Afghan refugees in Killi Faizo will be transferred to Roghani camp in Baluchistan soon to alleviate overcrowding in Killi Faizo and make way for new arrivals. The current population of Killi Faizo exceeds 2,400 people.
- With the exception of the Killi Faizo site, most refugees are housed in 203 old refugee camps or in private houses with relatives in Peshawar and Quetta. A smaller number of refugees are located in Karachi and Islamabad.
- UNHCR reports that the number of "invisible" refugees is increasing, and that identification of them and delivery of assistance to them is becoming more problematic.

Region

- Shelter Now International-U.S. reports logistical delays in transporting relief supplies through the Tajikistan/Afghanistan border. UNOCHA is aware of the situation and is working with the Government of Tajikistan to resolve the issue.

U.S. Government Activities

New Actions

- From November 6-8, the U.S. Department of Defense (DOD) will airlift the following USAID/OFDA commodities from Pisa, Italy to Ashgabat, Turkmenistan aboard C-17 aircraft: 20,000 wool blankets, 100 rolls of plastic sheeting, 200 MT of BP-5 High Energy Biscuits, and 1 MT of sugar. The commodities, valued at $751,102, will be consigned to the International Organization for Migration (IOM) for distribution in Afghanistan.
- USAID/Disaster Assistance Response Team (DART) members in Uzbekistan are conducting a logistical assessment of Termez in coordination with the U.N. and NGOs working in the area.
- To date, DOD has airdropped 1,275,840 Humanitarian Daily Rations (HDRs), valued at $5,486,112, into Afghanistan.

Disaster Declarations & Background

- On October 4, 2001, Assistant Secretary of State for South Asian Affairs Christina B. Rocca redeclared a complex humanitarian disaster for Afghanistan for FY 2002.
- On October 10, 2001, U.S. Chargé d'Affaires James A. Boughner declared a disaster for Tajikistan due to drought.

U.S. PRE-POSITIONS HUMANITARIAN AID TO HELP INNOCENT AFGHANS PREPARE FOR HARSH WINTER

Winter is quickly approaching in Afghanistan. Heavy snows will soon begin falling, making it difficult for humanitarian relief convoys to reach many parts of the country.

Years of civil war, drought, rule by the repressive Taliban regime and the presence of the Al Qaeda network have left Afghanistan with a major humanitarian crisis. In particular, the most vulnerable Afghans -- the more than 10 million children -- are suffering. Almost 1/2 of Afghan children suffer from chronic malnutrition. Millions of innocent Afghans face the threat of starvation.

The US has for years been the largest donor of humanitarian aid to Afghanistan. And with this year's winter approaching in Afghanistan, the US is accelerating its relief activities to get as much food, blankets, and other important relief items to the innocent Afghan people.

As the Afghan winter rapidly approaches, the United States, through the U.N. World Food Program (WFP), is working hard to preposition large quantities of food in mountainous areas. At the beginning of the current crisis, WFP was transporting only 200 metric tons of food aid into Afghanistan per day. This figure is now up to 2,400 metric tons. WFP is moving food directly to areas of need in Afghanistan from Peshawar and Quetta in Pakistan, Iran, Turkmenistan, and Tajikistan. The US has recently taken other key actions to help the Afghan people. For example:

- ☑ To date, the Department of Defense (DOD) has airdropped 1,275,840 Humanitarian Daily Rations (HDRs) valued at $5,486,112 into Afghanistan.
- ☑ The U.S. Agency for International Development (USAID) provided WFP with $5 million for the purchase of approximately 160 trucks to augment the trucking capacity inside Afghanistan and help WFP deliver 32,000 metric tons of food aid to Afghanistan's mountainous areas over the next three to four weeks.
- ☑ USAID provided $6 million to WFP to purchase 15,000 metric tons of wheat from Kazakhstan; the wheat will be transported to Turkmenistan, where it will be bagged for further transport and delivery to the emergency operation in Northern Afghanistan. In addition, USAID recently signed contracts with several Non-Governmental Organizations (NGO's) for the local purchase of another 13,495 metric tons of wheat and other commodities valued at $5.2 million, that will go to the people of Afghanistan.
- ☑ USAID currently delivers food, blankets and other important items to over one-third of the 157 districts in Afghanistan identified by WFP as in need of immediate emergency assistance. Additionally, USAID-funded programs provide relief to over two-thirds of the 55 most-severely affected districts within that group.
- ☑ The U.S. is providing $2 million to WFP to airlift U.S. Government-donated wheat from WFP's warehouse in Quetta, Pakistan to Turkmenabad, Turkmenistan, which has a dangerously low supply of food stocks and needs to re-supply until deliveries from Iran arrive. Over the next several days, WFP aircraft will fly three to four flights a day between Pakistan and Turkmenistan for a total of 30 to 40 flights over a 10-day period. The wheat will then be loaded onto trucks destined for northern Afghanistan, the hunger belt of the country where WFP is seeking to help about three million people stay alive until the harvest next year.
- ☑ On November 5, USAID began the airlift of 200 metric tons of BP-5 High Energy Biscuits, 20,000 wool blankets, 100 rolls of plastic sheeting, and 1 metric ton of sugar via C-17 cargo plane to Ashgabat, Turkmenistan. USAID anticipates completion of the commodity airlift by November 9. The commodities, valued at $751,102, will be transferred to International Organization for Migration (IOM) for distribution in Afghanistan.

BUREAU FOR HUMANITARIAN RESPONSE (BHR)
CENTRAL ASIA TASK FORCE

CENTRAL ASIA REGION – Complex Emergency

Note: this Fact Sheet updates previously released Central Asia Region Fact Sheets and Situation Reports.

Numbers Affected

- On November 6, the U.N. High Commissioner for Refugees (UNHCR) reported that approximately 135,000 Afghan refugees have entered Pakistan since September 11. Of these new arrivals, UNHCR believes that 75,000 entered through North West Frontier Province and 60,000 entered through Baluchistan Province.

Afghanistan

- The U.N. Office for the Coordination of Humanitarian Affairs (UNOCHA) has developed a 30-day Operational Emergency Assistance Plan to enhance NGO and U.N. agency planning for humanitarian operations in Afghanistan as well as assistance to Afghan refugees. The plan is designed to create a complete picture of estimated needs inside Afghanistan; a complete picture of which organizations are operating in what areas and sectors; an accountability tool for monitoring performance and achievements; and a mechanism for identifying which areas are inaccessible and why. The plan will be implemented on a 30-day rolling basis, with the first period spanning November 12 through December 12, 2001.
- The World Food Program (WFP) reports that it is continually increasing its cross-border deliveries of food aid into Afghanistan. At the beginning of the current crisis, WFP was transporting only 200 metric tons (MT) of food aid into Afghanistan per day. This figure is now up to 2,400 MT. The increase in the rate of transport is due to a new strategy of bypassing urban centers and moving the food directly to areas of need. In addition, the increase is due to the utilization of five transport corridors. WFP is hopeful that it will soon be operating at a capacity to meet the transport requirement of 52,000 MT per month.
- However, distribution of the food will be difficult since several highly vulnerable districts remain inaccessible due to insecurity. Some 27,000 MT of food is required in inaccessible areas to feed 500,000 people who are expected to run short of food by the end of the year. Security conditions in these inaccessible districts (listed in Fact Sheet #21) are deteriorating as a result of banditry, lack of communication, and the ongoing civil war.
- In addition, distribution of the food will be difficult in the mountainous areas of Afghanistan, where 32,000 MT of additional food aid is required over the next three to four weeks to sustain the food-insecure population for the winter. To date, only 7,000 MT of food aid has been delivered to the area.
- To reach the above target, WFP is working to secure trucks that can operate in the deep snow. Furthermore, WFP is planning an airdrop of food in snow-bound areas of northern Afghanistan as a compliment to overland delivery. WFP will use black, snow-proof bags to package the food. WFP plans to establish a base camp at the tip of the Anjuman Pass to coordinate assistance to the area.
- The U.N. reports that many internally displaced persons (IDPs) in the eastern and central regions of Afghanistan are able to find shelter on their own, alleviating some of the burden on humanitarian agencies. This resourcefulness is particularly important given the steady increase in the number of IDPs.
- The U.N. reports that the Taliban's seizure and return of humanitarian offices and assets and forced cessation of humanitarian activities remains inconsistent from one area to another.
- UNHCR remains concerned about the security of aid workers and the protection of IDPs in camps near the borders of Iran and Pakistan. The presence of armed fighters in the vicinity of IDP camps complicates the delivery of humanitarian assistance, and the assurance that aid does not fall into the hands of the Taliban or Northern Alliance. The conscription of young IDP men, who reside in the camps, also concerns UNHCR.
- The second round of national immunization days to vaccinate children against polio began on November 6, and will continue through November 8. Cases of malaria are reported in the provinces of Baghlan, Faryab, Laghman, and Nangahar. The World Health Organization is moving additional supplies of malaria prophylaxis into Afghanistan to combat the disease.
- UNOCHA reports that a mine action NGO is providing emergency mine awareness training to people in the Herat area. According to UNOCHA, the U.N. Demining Program has had 100 vehicles stolen from its office in Afghanistan, complicating mine-related activities throughout the country.

Pakistan

- WFP announced on November 7 that two Ilyushin cargo aircraft will airlift more than 2,000 MT of food from northern Pakistan to Turkmenabad, Turkmenistan over a 10-day period. From this location, the food will be transported via truck to remote areas of northern Afghanistan. One of the aircraft began transporting food yesterday; the other will begin today. USAID/Food for Peace funding is supporting this operation.

- On November 5, Pakistani authorities allowed approximately 300 women and children to shelter in the registration tents inside the Killi Faizo staging area, near the Chaman border crossing in Baluchistan. Approximately 100 men are waiting outside the site for entrance. UNHCR and Pakistani officials are still negotiating formal approval for the refugees to become part of the camp population. The maximum capacity of the site (approximately 1,600 people) was exceeded last week, leading Pakistani authorities to suspend registration on November 2, and send new arrivals back across the border to Spin Boldak.
- Afghan refugees in Killi Faizo will be transferred to Roghani camp in Baluchistan soon to alleviate overcrowding in Killi Faizo and make way for new arrivals. The current population of Killi Faizo exceeds 2,400 people.
- With the exception of the Killi Faizo site, most refugees are housed in 203 old refugee camps or in private houses with relatives in Peshawar and Quetta. A smaller number of refugees are located in Karachi and Islamabad.
- UNHCR reports that the number of "invisible" refugees is increasing, and that identification of them and delivery of assistance to them is becoming more problematic.

Region

- Shelter Now International-U.S. reports logistical delays in transporting relief supplies through the Tajikistan/Afghanistan border. UNOCHA is aware of the situation and is working with the Government of Tajikistan to resolve the issue.

U.S. Government Activities

New Actions

- From November 6-8, the U.S. Department of Defense (DOD) will airlift the following USAID/OFDA commodities from Pisa, Italy to Ashgabat, Turkmenistan aboard C-17 aircraft: 20,000 wool blankets, 100 rolls of plastic sheeting, 200 MT of BP-5 High Energy Biscuits, and 1 MT of sugar. The commodities, valued at $751,102, will be consigned to the International Organization for Migration (IOM) for distribution in Afghanistan.
- USAID/Disaster Assistance Response Team (DART) members in Uzbekistan are conducting a logistical assessment of Termez in coordination with the U.N. and NGOs working in the area.
- To date, DOD has airdropped 1,275,840 Humanitarian Daily Rations (HDRs), valued at $5,486,112, into Afghanistan.

Disaster Declarations & Background

- On October 4, 2001, Assistant Secretary of State for South Asian Affairs Christina B. Rocca redeclared a complex humanitarian disaster for Afghanistan for FY 2002.
- On October 10, 2001, U.S. Chargé d'Affaires James A. Boughner declared a disaster for Tajikistan due to drought.

U.S. PRE-POSITIONS HUMANITARIAN AID TO HELP INNOCENT AFGHANS PREPARE FOR HARSH WINTER

Winter is quickly approaching in Afghanistan. Heavy snows will soon begin falling, making it difficult for humanitarian relief convoys to reach many parts of the country.

Years of civil war, drought, rule by the repressive Taliban regime and the presence of the Al Qaeda network have left Afghanistan with a major humanitarian crisis. In particular, the most vulnerable Afghans -- the more than 10 million children -- are suffering. Almost 1/2 of Afghan children suffer from chronic malnutrition. Millions of innocent Afghans face the threat of starvation.

The US has for years been the largest donor of humanitarian aid to Afghanistan. And with this year's winter approaching in Afghanistan, the US is accelerating its relief activities to get as much food, blankets, and other important relief items to the innocent Afghan people.

As the Afghan winter rapidly approaches, the United States, through the U.N. World Food Program (WFP), is working hard to preposition large quantities of food in mountainous areas. At the beginning of the current crisis, WFP was transporting only 200 metric tons of food aid into Afghanistan per day. This figure is now up to 2,400 metric tons. WFP is moving food directly to areas of need in Afghanistan from Peshawar and Quetta in Pakistan, Iran, Turkmenistan, and Tajikistan. The US has recently taken other key actions to help the Afghan people. For example:

- ☑ To date, the Department of Defense (DOD) has airdropped 1,275,840 Humanitarian Daily Rations (HDRs) valued at $5,486,112 into Afghanistan.
- ☑ The U.S. Agency for International Development (USAID) provided WFP with $5 million for the purchase of approximately 160 trucks to augment the trucking capacity inside Afghanistan and help WFP deliver 32,000 metric tons of food aid to Afghanistan's mountainous areas over the next three to four weeks.
- ☑ USAID provided $6 million to WFP to purchase 15,000 metric tons of wheat from Kazakhstan; the wheat will be transported to Turkmenistan, where it will be bagged for further transport and delivery to the emergency operation in Northern Afghanistan. In addition, USAID recently signed contracts with several Non-Governmental Organizations (NGO's) for the local purchase of another 13,495 metric tons of wheat and other commodities valued at $5.2 million, that will go to the people of Afghanistan.
- ☑ USAID currently delivers food, blankets and other important items to over one-third of the 157 districts in Afghanistan identified by WFP as in need of immediate emergency assistance. Additionally, USAID-funded programs provide relief to over two-thirds of the 55 most-severely affected districts within that group.
- ☑ The U.S. is providing $2 million to WFP to airlift U.S. Government-donated wheat from WFP's warehouse in Quetta, Pakistan to Turkmenabad, Turkmenistan, which has a dangerously low supply of food stocks and needs to re-supply until deliveries from Iran arrive. Over the next several days, WFP aircraft will fly three to four flights a day between Pakistan and Turkmenistan for a total of 30 to 40 flights over a 10-day period. The wheat will then be loaded onto trucks destined for northern Afghanistan, the hunger belt of the country where WFP is seeking to help about three million people stay alive until the harvest next year.
- ☑ On November 5, USAID began the airlift of 200 metric tons of BP-5 High Energy Biscuits, 20,000 wool blankets, 100 rolls of plastic sheeting, and 1 metric ton of sugar via C-17 cargo plane to Ashgabat, Turkmenistan. USAID anticipates completion of the commodity airlift by November 9. The commodities, valued at $751,102, will be transferred to International Organization for Migration (IOM) for distribution in Afghanistan.

U.S. AGENCY FOR INTERNATIONAL DEVELOPMENT
BUREAU FOR HUMANITARIAN RESPONSE (BHR)
OFFICE OF U.S. FOREIGN DISASTER ASSISTANCE (OFDA)
CENTRAL ASIA TASK FORCE

CENTRAL ASIA REGION – Complex Emergency

Note: this Fact Sheet updates previously released Central Asia Region Fact Sheets and Situation Reports.

Numbers Affected

- On November 6, the U.N. High Commissioner for Refugees (UNHCR) reported that approximately 135,000 Afghan refugees have entered Pakistan since September 11. Of these new arrivals, UNHCR believes that 75,000 entered through North West Frontier Province and 60,000 entered through Baluchistan Province.

Afghanistan

- The U.N. Office for the Coordination of Humanitarian Affairs (UNOCHA) has developed a 30-day Operational Emergency Assistance Plan to enhance NGO and U.N. agency planning for humanitarian operations in Afghanistan as well as assistance to Afghan refugees. The plan is designed to create a complete picture of estimated needs inside Afghanistan; a complete picture of which organizations are operating in what areas and sectors; an accountability tool for monitoring performance and achievements; and a mechanism for identifying which areas are inaccessible and why. The plan will be implemented on a 30-day rolling basis, with the first period spanning November 12 through December 12, 2001.
- The World Food Program (WFP) reports that it is continually increasing its cross-border deliveries of food aid into Afghanistan. At the beginning of the current crisis, WFP was transporting only 200 metric tons (MT) of food aid into Afghanistan per day. This figure is now up to 2,400 MT. The increase in the rate of transport is due to a new strategy of bypassing urban centers and moving the food directly to areas of need. In addition, the increase is due to the utilization of five transport corridors. WFP is hopeful that it will soon be operating at a capacity to meet the transport requirement of 52,000 MT per month.
- However, distribution of the food will be difficult since several highly vulnerable districts remain inaccessible due to insecurity. Some 27,000 MT of food is required in inaccessible areas to feed 500,000 people who are expected to run short of food by the end of the year. Security conditions in these inaccessible districts (listed in Fact Sheet #21) are deteriorating as a result of banditry, lack of communication, and the ongoing civil war.
- In addition, distribution of the food will be difficult in the mountainous areas of Afghanistan, where 32,000 MT of additional food aid is required over the next three to four weeks to sustain the food-insecure population for the winter. To date, only 7,000 MT of food aid has been delivered to the area.
- To reach the above target, WFP is working to secure trucks that can operate in the deep snow. Furthermore, WFP is planning an airdrop of food in snow-bound areas of northern Afghanistan as a compliment to overland delivery. WFP will use black, snow-proof bags to package the food. WFP plans to establish a base camp at the tip of the Anjuman Pass to coordinate assistance to the area.
- The U.N. reports that many internally displaced persons (IDPs) in the eastern and central regions of Afghanistan are able to find shelter on their own, alleviating some of the burden on humanitarian agencies. This resourcefulness is particularly important given the steady increase in the number of IDPs.
- The U.N. reports that the Taliban's seizure and return of humanitarian offices and assets and forced cessation of humanitarian activities remains inconsistent from one area to another.
- UNHCR remains concerned about the security of aid workers and the protection of IDPs in camps near the borders of Iran and Pakistan. The presence of armed fighters in the vicinity of IDP camps complicates the delivery of humanitarian assistance, and the assurance that aid does not fall into the hands of the Taliban or Northern Alliance. The conscription of young IDP men, who reside in the camps, also concerns UNHCR.
- The second round of national immunization days to vaccinate children against polio began on November 6, and will continue through November 8. Cases of malaria are reported in the provinces of Baghlan, Faryab, Laghman, and Nangahar. The World Health Organization is moving additional supplies of malaria prophylaxis into Afghanistan to combat the disease.
- UNOCHA reports that a mine action NGO is providing emergency mine awareness training to people in the Herat area. According to UNOCHA, the U.N. Demining Program has had 100 vehicles stolen from its office in Afghanistan, complicating mine-related activities throughout the country.

Pakistan

- WFP announced on November 7 that two Ilyushin cargo aircraft will airlift more than 2,000 MT of food from northern Pakistan to Turkmenabad, Turkmenistan over a 10-day period. From this location, the food will be transported via truck to remote areas of northern Afghanistan. One of the aircraft began transporting food yesterday; the other will begin today. USAID/Food for Peace funding is supporting this operation.

- On November 5, Pakistani authorities allowed approximately 300 women and children to shelter in the registration tents inside the Killi Faizo staging area, near the Chaman border crossing in Baluchistan. Approximately 100 men are waiting outside the site for entrance. UNHCR and Pakistani officials are still negotiating formal approval for the refugees to become part of the camp population. The maximum capacity of the site (approximately 1,600 people) was exceeded last week, leading Pakistani authorities to suspend registration on November 2, and send new arrivals back across the border to Spin Boldak.
- Afghan refugees in Killi Faizo will be transferred to Roghani camp in Baluchistan soon to alleviate overcrowding in Killi Faizo and make way for new arrivals. The current population of Killi Faizo exceeds 2,400 people.
- With the exception of the Killi Faizo site, most refugees are housed in 203 old refugee camps or in private houses with relatives in Peshawar and Quetta. A smaller number of refugees are located in Karachi and Islamabad.
- UNHCR reports that the number of "invisible" refugees is increasing, and that identification of them and delivery of assistance to them is becoming more problematic.

Region

- Shelter Now International-U.S. reports logistical delays in transporting relief supplies through the Tajikistan/Afghanistan border. UNOCHA is aware of the situation and is working with the Government of Tajikistan to resolve the issue.

U.S. Government Activities

New Actions

- From November 6-8, the U.S. Department of Defense (DOD) will airlift the following USAID/OFDA commodities from Pisa, Italy to Ashgabat, Turkmenistan aboard C-17 aircraft: 20,000 wool blankets, 100 rolls of plastic sheeting, 200 MT of BP-5 High Energy Biscuits, and 1 MT of sugar. The commodities, valued at $751,102, will be consigned to the International Organization for Migration (IOM) for distribution in Afghanistan.

COMPARISON OF SENATE AND HOUSE TORT REFORM PROVISIONS

Tort Reform	Senate Bill	House Bill
Exclusive Federal Cause of Action	Creates exclusive federal cause of action for property damage, personal injury or death arising out of covered terrorism acts.	Creates exclusive federal cause of action covered by commercial property and casualty insurance for damages caused by acts of terrorism.
Claims Consolidation	Within 90 days of terrorist act, Judicial Panel on Multidistrict Litigation assigns jurisdiction for all claims for covered actions arising out of that terrorist act to a single Federal district court. Assignment based on convenience of parties and just and efficient conduct of proceedings. Cases filed in other federal or state courts are transferred/removed to the designated district court.	Judicial Panel on Multidistrict Litigation assigns jurisdiction for all claims for covered actions to one or more federal district courts. No standards for assignment are given. No specific mention of transfer or removal, but would likely be mandated under jurisdictional provision.
Offset	No offset provision.	Offsets plaintiff's recovery from any Federal emergency or disaster relief program or from any other collateral source.
Punitive Damages	Disallows punitive or exemplary damages for covered actions. Thus, in any civil action involving property damage, personal injury or death arising from an act of terrorism, punitive damages would be disallowed..	Disallows punitive damages "intended to punish or deter" for covered actions, but only for damages claimed "by an insured." Intent of this provision appears to be to limit reimbursement for punitive damages to insured policyholders under the program, but language is ambiguous.
Proportional Liability	No proportional liability provision.	Requires proportional liability based on each defendant's responsibility for non-economic damages, but again.only for damages claimed "by an insured."

Tort Reform	Senate Bill	House Bill
Subrogation	No right to subrogation provision. [Is this an omission?]	United States has the right of subrogation for claims U.S. pays under the Act.
Statute of Limitations	No statute of limitations provision.	No statute of limitations provision.
Sunset	Provisions apply only to covered actions arising out of acts of terrorism that occur while program is in effect.	Same as Senate bill, although ambiguously drafted.
Prior Approval for Settlements	[Requires prior approval by the Secretary of the Treasury of any settlements for covered actions.]	No settlement provision
Protective Order	No protective order provision	Authorizes United States or Administrator to seek protective orders for classified information.
Claims against Terrorists or Aiders and Abettors	Act does not limit recovery against any person, government, or other entity that participated in or aided and abetted any act of terrorism.	Not mentioned

Recent Key Quotes & Developments

- "On Tuesday Security Council President, Ambassador Patricia Durrant of Jamaica, called on the Taliban not to impede the aid effort, saying that the Council 'deplored the looting of UN offices, and the Taliban's takeover of humanitarian relief sites, including food and supply warehouses.'" (CNN, 11/7/01)
- "The Taliban took our husbands and our sons. They burned our homes and our mosque." (Baqhtawar, a 60-year old Afghani woman from near Herat in western Afghanistan; AFP, 11/7/01)
- "The 11 September attacks were assaults on humanity, and humanity must respond to them as one." (U.N. Secretary General Kofi Annan, 11/7/01)
- "We are in a moral struggle to fight an evil that is anathema to all faiths. The struggle will be long, for there is much to do. Terrorists must not be given shelter and their financial mechanisms and logistical supports must be destroyed." (U.N. Secretary General Kofi Annan, 11/7/01)

In Case You Missed It…

"Funds raised form the production and trading of opium and heroin are used by the Taliban to buy arms and other war materiels, and to finance the training of terrorists and support the operations of extremists in neighboring countries and beyond." (UN Committee of Experts on Afghanistan, May 2001 report)

Message

- The terrorists never expected that America would emerge stronger, with a renewed spirit of pride and patriotism. Americans have responded with courage and caring.
- This new enemy seeks to destroy freedom and impose its views. We value life, the terrorists wantonly destroy it. We value education – the terrorists do not believe women should be educated, or should have health care, or should leave their homes. We value the right to speak our minds – for the terrorists, free expression can be grounds for execution. We respect people of all faiths and welcome the free practice of religion – our enemy wants to dictate how to think and how to worship even to their fellow Muslims.
- This is a different war from any our Nation has ever faced, a war on many fronts, against terrorists who operate in more than 60 different counties. And this is a war that must be fought not only overseas but also here at home.
- The government has a responsibility to protect our citizens – and that starts with homeland security. To coordinate these efforts we have created the new Office of Homeland Security and we passed a new anti-terrorism law which gives our law enforcement officers the necessary tools to track terrorists before they harm Americans.
- The best way to defend our homeland – the best way to make sure our children can live in peace – is to take the battle to the enemy and stop them forever.
- Our military is pursuing its mission. We are destroying training camps, disrupting communications, and dismantling air defenses. We are now bombing Taliban front lines. We are deliberately and systematically hunting down these murderers and we will bring them to justice.

Facts of the Day

- During the past two days, USAID flights have delivered 22,000 wool blankets to Turkmenistan from Pisa, Italy. Those blankets, will be distributed throughout northern Afghanistan.
- On November 6 and 7, USAID shipped more than 6,000 cases of BP-5 High Energy Biscuits to Turkmenistan to be distributed to the people of northern Afghanistan.
- This week, USAID will ship more than $750,000 in aid to Turkmenistan for distribution in northern Afghanistan. That money is in addition to the $320 million in aid announced by President Bush.

Recent Key Quotes & Developments

- "On Tuesday Security Council President, Ambassador Patricia Durrant of Jamaica, called on the Taliban not to impede the aid effort, saying that the Council 'deplored the looting of UN offices, and the Taliban's takeover of humanitarian relief sites, including food and supply warehouses.'" (CNN, 11/7/01)
- "The Taliban took our husbands and our sons. They burned our homes and our mosque." (Baqhtawar, a 60-year old Afghani woman from near Herat in western Afghanistan; AFP, 11/7/01)
- "The 11 September attacks were assaults on humanity, and humanity must respond to them as one." (U.N. Secretary General Kofi Annan, 11/7/01)
- "We are in a moral struggle to fight an evil that is anathema to all faiths. The struggle will be long, for there is much to do. Terrorists must not be given shelter and their financial mechanisms and logistical supports must be destroyed." (U.N. Secretary General Kofi Annan, 11/7/01)

In Case You Missed It…

"Funds raised form the production and trading of opium and heroin are used by the Taliban to buy arms and other war materiels, and to finance the training of terrorists and support the operations of extremists in neighboring countries and beyond." (UN Committee of Experts on Afghanistan, May 2001 report)

Message

- The terrorists never expected that America would emerge stronger, with a renewed spirit of pride and patriotism. Americans have responded with courage and caring.
- This new enemy seeks to destroy freedom and impose its views. We value life, the terrorists wantonly destroy it. We value education – the terrorists do not believe women should be educated, or should have health care, or should leave their homes. We value the right to speak our minds – for the terrorists, free expression can be grounds for execution. We respect people of all faiths and welcome the free practice of religion – our enemy wants to dictate how to think and how to worship even to their fellow Muslims.
- This is a different war from any our Nation has ever faced, a war on many fronts, against terrorists who operate in more than 60 different counties. And this is a war that must be fought not only overseas but also here at home.
- The government has a responsibility to protect our citizens – and that starts with homeland security. To coordinate these efforts we have created the new Office of Homeland Security and we passed a new anti-terrorism law which gives our law enforcement officers the necessary tools to track terrorists before they harm Americans.
- The best way to defend our homeland – the best way to make sure our children can live in peace – is to take the battle to the enemy and stop them forever.
- Our military is pursuing its mission. We are destroying training camps, disrupting communications, and dismantling air defenses. We are now bombing Taliban front lines. We are deliberately and systematically hunting down these murderers and we will bring them to justice.

Facts of the Day

- During the past two days, USAID flights have delivered 22,000 wool blankets to Turkmenistan from Pisa, Italy. Those blankets, will be distributed throughout northern Afghanistan.
- On November 6 and 7, USAID shipped more than 6,000 cases of BP-5 High Energy Biscuits to Turkmenistan to be distributed to the people of northern Afghanistan.
- This week, USAID will ship more than $750,000 in aid to Turkmenistan for distribution in northern Afghanistan. That money is in addition to the $320 million in aid announced by President Bush.

Recent Key Quotes & Developments

- "On Tuesday Security Council President, Ambassador Patricia Durrant of Jamaica, called on the Taliban not to impede the aid effort, saying that the Council 'deplored the looting of UN offices, and the Taliban's takeover of humanitarian relief sites, including food and supply warehouses.'" (CNN, 11/7/01)
- "The Taliban took our husbands and our sons. They burned our homes and our mosque." (Baqhtawar, a 60-year old Afghani woman from near Herat in western Afghanistan; AFP, 11/7/01)
- "The 11 September attacks were assaults on humanity, and humanity must respond to them as one." (U.N. Secretary General Kofi Annan, 11/7/01)
- "We are in a moral struggle to fight an evil that is anathema to all faiths. The struggle will be long, for there is much to do. Terrorists must not be given shelter and their financial mechanisms and logistical supports must be destroyed." (U.N. Secretary General Kofi Annan, 11/7/01)

In Case You Missed It…

"Funds raised form the production and trading of opium and heroin are used by the Taliban to buy arms and other war materiels, and to finance the training of terrorists and support the operations of extremists in neighboring countries and beyond." (UN Committee of Experts on Afghanistan, May 2001 report)

Message

- The terrorists never expected that America would emerge stronger, with a renewed spirit of pride and patriotism. Americans have responded with courage and caring.
- This new enemy seeks to destroy freedom and impose its views. We value life, the terrorists wantonly destroy it. We value education – the terrorists do not believe women should be educated, or should have health care, or should leave their homes. We value the right to speak our minds – for the terrorists, free expression can be grounds for execution. We respect people of all faiths and welcome the free practice of religion – our enemy wants to dictate how to think and how to worship even to their fellow Muslims.
- This is a different war from any our Nation has ever faced, a war on many fronts, against terrorists who operate in more than 60 different counties. And this is a war that must be fought not only overseas but also here at home.
- The government has a responsibility to protect our citizens – and that starts with homeland security. To coordinate these efforts we have created the new Office of Homeland Security and we passed a new anti-terrorism law which gives our law enforcement officers the necessary tools to track terrorists before they harm Americans.
- The best way to defend our homeland – the best way to make sure our children can live in peace – is to take the battle to the enemy and stop them forever.
- Our military is pursuing its mission. We are destroying training camps, disrupting communications, and dismantling air defenses. We are now bombing Taliban front lines. We are deliberately and systematically hunting down these murderers and we will bring them to justice.

Facts of the Day

- During the past two days, USAID flights have delivered 22,000 wool blankets to Turkmenistan from Pisa, Italy. Those blankets, will be distributed throughout northern Afghanistan.
- On November 6 and 7, USAID shipped more than 6,000 cases of BP-5 High Energy Biscuits to Turkmenistan to be distributed to the people of northern Afghanistan.
- This week, USAID will ship more than $750,000 in aid to Turkmenistan for distribution in northern Afghanistan. That money is in addition to the $320 million in aid announced by President Bush.

Recent Key Quotes & Developments

- "On Tuesday Security Council President, Ambassador Patricia Durrant of Jamaica, called on the Taliban not to impede the aid effort, saying that the Council 'deplored the looting of UN offices, and the Taliban's takeover of humanitarian relief sites, including food and supply warehouses.'" (CNN, 11/7/01)
- "The Taliban took our husbands and our sons. They burned our homes and our mosque." (Baqhtawar, a 60-year old Afghani woman from near Herat in western Afghanistan; AFP, 11/7/01)
- "The 11 September attacks were assaults on humanity, and humanity must respond to them as one." (U.N. Secretary General Kofi Annan, 11/7/01)
- "We are in a moral struggle to fight an evil that is anathema to all faiths. The struggle will be long, for there is much to do. Terrorists must not be given shelter and their financial mechanisms and logistical supports must be destroyed." (U.N. Secretary General Kofi Annan, 11/7/01)

In Case You Missed It…

"Funds raised form the production and trading of opium and heroin are used by the Taliban to buy arms and other war materiels, and to finance the training of terrorists and support the operations of extremists in neighboring countries and beyond." (UN Committee of Experts on Afghanistan, May 2001 report)

Message

- The terrorists never expected that America would emerge stronger, with a renewed spirit of pride and patriotism. Americans have responded with courage and caring.
- This new enemy seeks to destroy freedom and impose its views. We value life, the terrorists wantonly destroy it. We value education – the terrorists do not believe women should be educated, or should have health care, or should leave their homes. We value the right to speak our minds – for the terrorists, free expression can be grounds for execution. We respect people of all faiths and welcome the free practice of religion – our enemy wants to dictate how to think and how to worship even to their fellow Muslims.
- This is a different war from any our Nation has ever faced, a war on many fronts, against terrorists who operate in more than 60 different counties. And this is a war that must be fought not only overseas but also here at home.
- The government has a responsibility to protect our citizens – and that starts with homeland security. To coordinate these efforts we have created the new Office of Homeland Security and we passed a new anti-terrorism law which gives our law enforcement officers the necessary tools to track terrorists before they harm Americans.
- The best way to defend our homeland – the best way to make sure our children can live in peace – is to take the battle to the enemy and stop them forever.
- Our military is pursuing its mission. We are destroying training camps, disrupting communications, and dismantling air defenses. We are now bombing Taliban front lines. We are deliberately and systematically hunting down these murderers and we will bring them to justice.

Facts of the Day

- During the past two days, USAID flights have delivered 22,000 wool blankets to Turkmenistan from Pisa, Italy. Those blankets, will be distributed throughout northern Afghanistan.
- On November 6 and 7, USAID shipped more than 6,000 cases of BP-5 High Energy Biscuits to Turkmenistan to be distributed to the people of northern Afghanistan.
- This week, USAID will ship more than $750,000 in aid to Turkmenistan for distribution in northern Afghanistan. That money is in addition to the $320 million in aid announced by President Bush.

Recent Key Quotes & Developments

- "On Tuesday Security Council President, Ambassador Patricia Durrant of Jamaica, called on the Taliban not to impede the aid effort, saying that the Council 'deplored the looting of UN offices, and the Taliban's takeover of humanitarian relief sites, including food and supply warehouses.'" (CNN, 11/7/01)
- "The Taliban took our husbands and our sons. They burned our homes and our mosque." (Baqhtawar, a 60-year old Afghani woman from near Herat in western Afghanistan; AFP, 11/7/01)
- "The 11 September attacks were assaults on humanity, and humanity must respond to them as one." (U.N. Secretary General Kofi Annan, 11/7/01)
- "We are in a moral struggle to fight an evil that is anathema to all faiths. The struggle will be long, for there is much to do. Terrorists must not be given shelter and their financial mechanisms and logistical supports must be destroyed." (U.N. Secretary General Kofi Annan, 11/7/01)

In Case You Missed It…

"Funds raised form the production and trading of opium and heroin are used by the Taliban to buy arms and other war materiels, and to finance the training of terrorists and support the operations of extremists in neighboring countries and beyond." (UN Committee of Experts on Afghanistan, May 2001 report)

Message

- The terrorists never expected that America would emerge stronger, with a renewed spirit of pride and patriotism. Americans have responded with courage and caring.
- This new enemy seeks to destroy freedom and impose its views. We value life, the terrorists wantonly destroy it. We value education – the terrorists do not believe women should be educated, or should have health care, or should leave their homes. We value the right to speak our minds – for the terrorists, free expression can be grounds for execution. We respect people of all faiths and welcome the free practice of religion – our enemy wants to dictate how to think and how to worship even to their fellow Muslims.
- This is a different war from any our Nation has ever faced, a war on many fronts, against terrorists who operate in more than 60 different counties. And this is a war that must be fought not only overseas but also here at home.
- The government has a responsibility to protect our citizens – and that starts with homeland security. To coordinate these efforts we have created the new Office of Homeland Security and we passed a new anti-terrorism law which gives our law enforcement officers the necessary tools to track terrorists before they harm Americans.
- The best way to defend our homeland – the best way to make sure our children can live in peace – is to take the battle to the enemy and stop them forever.
- Our military is pursuing its mission. We are destroying training camps, disrupting communications, and dismantling air defenses. We are now bombing Taliban front lines. We are deliberately and systematically hunting down these murderers and we will bring them to justice.

Facts of the Day

- During the past two days, USAID flights have delivered 22,000 wool blankets to Turkmenistan from Pisa, Italy. Those blankets, will be distributed throughout northern Afghanistan.
- On November 6 and 7, USAID shipped more than 6,000 cases of BP-5 High Energy Biscuits to Turkmenistan to be distributed to the people of northern Afghanistan.
- This week, USAID will ship more than $750,000 in aid to Turkmenistan for distribution in northern Afghanistan. That money is in addition to the $320 million in aid announced by President Bush.

Recent Key Quotes & Developments

- "On Tuesday Security Council President, Ambassador Patricia Durrant of Jamaica, called on the Taliban not to impede the aid effort, saying that the Council 'deplored the looting of UN offices, and the Taliban's takeover of humanitarian relief sites, including food and supply warehouses.'" (CNN, 11/7/01)
- "The Taliban took our husbands and our sons. They burned our homes and our mosque." (Baqhtawar, a 60-year old Afghani woman from near Herat in western Afghanistan; AFP, 11/7/01)
- "The 11 September attacks were assaults on humanity, and humanity must respond to them as one." (U.N. Secretary General Kofi Annan, 11/7/01)
- "We are in a moral struggle to fight an evil that is anathema to all faiths. The struggle will be long, for there is much to do. Terrorists must not be given shelter and their financial mechanisms and logistical supports must be destroyed." (U.N. Secretary General Kofi Annan, 11/7/01)

In Case You Missed It…

"Funds raised form the production and trading of opium and heroin are used by the Taliban to buy arms and other war materiels, and to finance the training of terrorists and support the operations of extremists in neighboring countries and beyond." (UN Committee of Experts on Afghanistan, May 2001 report)

Message

- The terrorists never expected that America would emerge stronger, with a renewed spirit of pride and patriotism. Americans have responded with courage and caring.
- This new enemy seeks to destroy freedom and impose its views. We value life, the terrorists wantonly destroy it. We value education – the terrorists do not believe women should be educated, or should have health care, or should leave their homes. We value the right to speak our minds – for the terrorists, free expression can be grounds for execution. We respect people of all faiths and welcome the free practice of religion – our enemy wants to dictate how to think and how to worship even to their fellow Muslims.
- This is a different war from any our Nation has ever faced, a war on many fronts, against terrorists who operate in more than 60 different counties. And this is a war that must be fought not only overseas but also here at home.
- The government has a responsibility to protect our citizens – and that starts with homeland security. To coordinate these efforts we have created the new Office of Homeland Security and we passed a new anti-terrorism law which gives our law enforcement officers the necessary tools to track terrorists before they harm Americans.
- The best way to defend our homeland – the best way to make sure our children can live in peace – is to take the battle to the enemy and stop them forever.
- Our military is pursuing its mission. We are destroying training camps, disrupting communications, and dismantling air defenses. We are now bombing Taliban front lines. We are deliberately and systematically hunting down these murderers and we will bring them to justice.

Facts of the Day

- During the past two days, USAID flights have delivered 22,000 wool blankets to Turkmenistan from Pisa, Italy. Those blankets, will be distributed throughout northern Afghanistan.
- On November 6 and 7, USAID shipped more than 6,000 cases of BP-5 High Energy Biscuits to Turkmenistan to be distributed to the people of northern Afghanistan.
- This week, USAID will ship more than $750,000 in aid to Turkmenistan for distribution in northern Afghanistan. That money is in addition to the $320 million in aid announced by President Bush.

The House Financial Services Committee passed by voice vote the Oxley-Baker bill this evening. Baker, Kanjorski and LaFalce spent many hours in a back room and agreed to the following compromise:

Treasury Secretary is Administrator.

Surcharges capped at 3% per year with an agreement to work together on language regarding flexibility on assessments and surcharges.

LaFalce study on pooling mechanisms.

The remainder of the bill is Oxley-Baker base test. On many other issues, they agreed to disagree with the hope of working something out before floor consideration. On liability, Rep. Chris Cox offered an amendment to expand the liability provisions. The amendment passed on a recorded vote. But, Rep. Bentsen offered an amendment that essentially stripped the Cox provisions which somehow passed on voice vote. A motion to reconsider the Bentsen amendment then failed by a recorded vote.

Committee staff expect the bill to be on the House floor next week. Feel free to call if you would like any more of the gory details.

Subject: Karl's flight to CA

Karl has a trip to CA this weekend. His plan was to return to DC on Mon, 11/12 via commercial carrier. Warren Tichenor would like to use his corporate plane owned by W.W. Tichenor & Co. (TX corp.) to fly Karl and Chris Henick back from San Diego to DC. What do you think?

Subject: Tichenor Aircraft N765WT

Thank you for your recent inquiries regarding N765WT, Mr. Tichenor's airplane.

In as much as I've received the same or similar inquiries from each of you this morning, I'm responding to all of you with this correspondence.

N765WT is a Bombardier Challenger 601-3A, owned and operated by W.W. Tichenor & Co., Inc., a Texas based corporation. Under our present and existing ownership, we flew during the campaign, Laura Bush, Barbara Bush, Secretary Evans, Director Allbaugh, Karen and Karl among numerous other campaign officials. For this reason, we believe that we can satisfy any requirements the Counsel's office may have.

Additionally, our lead counsel William D. White at Locke Liddell & Sapp in Dallas is a partner at the firm Ms. Miers headed before assuming her present position as Assistant to the President and Staff Secretary and is available to answer any questions in this regard. If there are any, please call me at PRA 6 and we'll endeavor to get them answered for you.

Sincerely,

Adriana Matouk

ACTION NEEDED NOW TO HELP WORKERS & ECONOMY

Today's Action

- On November 7, the Commerce Department announced that America's productivity during the third quarter rose at an annual rate of 2.7% -- the best performance in over a year. Productivity normally slumps during economic slowdowns, so these new productivity figures are a positive sign for the underlying strength and long-term health of our economy.

- Now is the time for decisive action to help the economy return more quickly to its growth potential. President Bush has asked Congress to enact worker relief and economic stimulus legislation to help America's workers and America's economy to recover from the effects of the September 11 attacks.

- Unfortunately, some members of the Senate Finance Committee are directing their efforts to a partisan, spending-focused grab bag that will do little to help unemployed workers and even less to help create jobs through economic growth.

- The President urges the Senate to work together across party lines to pass a responsible package that will provide immediate help to workers who have lost their jobs or who are concerned about their job security. The Senate will miss an opportunity to help America's economic recovery by engaging in dilatory partisan actions that do not bolster the economy or help workers who need assistance now.

The President's Back to Work Relief Package

- ☑ Temporarily extends unemployment benefits by 13 weeks for Americans who lost their jobs as a direct result of the terrorist attacks.
- ☑ Provides $3 billion in special National Emergency Grants that would be available immediately to help displaced workers maintain health coverage, supplement their income and receive job training. For example, funds could be used to pay up to 75% of health care premiums covered by COBRA for up to ten months.
- ☑ Expedites the ability of states to use $11 billion that is available now, including $3 billion scheduled to revert to the Treasury this year and next, to help low-income workers and their families receive health insurance.
- ☑ Encourages displaced workers to take advantage of more than $6 billion in existing federal programs that provide job search services, including job training and placement.

Why the President's Approach Makes More Sense For Displaced Workers Than The Baucus Bill

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Requires the federal government to create an entirely new federal program – including securing Congressional authorization, developing a formal regulatory process and establishing oversight mechanisms with states – a process that could take 6 months or more.

President's Approach: Delivers immediate health care assistance to workers in need through an additional $3 billion in the National Emergency Grants program at the Department of Labor. The NEG program is an established, effective program that requires no new rulemaking or legislative action by states. Funds could be available to states within a few weeks.

WHITE HOUSE OFFICE OF COMMUNICATIONS (202) 456-2777
FOR MORE INFORMATION ON THE PRESIDENT'S INITIATIVES PLEASE VISIT WWW.WHITEHOUSE.GOV

Baucus/Democrat Bill:	Creates a costly and unprecedented federal mandate on states to expand the unemployment insurance program. The annual cost of this expansion will exceed $10 billion per year, which amounts to a one percentage point increase in the unemployment payroll tax.
President's Approach:	Does not impose new taxes on employers or costly new mandates on states. Provides temporary and complete federal funding to assist states in dealing with extraordinary economic circumstances brought on by the events of September 11.
Baucus/Democrat Bill:	Imposes large mandatory increases in the share of workers' earnings that are replaced by unemployment insurance and structures benefits in a way that would increase unemployment. Numerous studies have found that very high unemployment benefits lead to significantly higher unemployment rates. The vastly increased duration and amounts of unemployment benefits available under all circumstances would create disincentives to take jobs – raising unemployment rates by 5% to 10% or more.
President's Approach:	Provides reasonable extensions of unemployment benefits and support for health insurance costs to help unemployed workers as they transition to new jobs. For example, the President's plan provides an extension of more than 3 months beyond the current 6-month unemployment benefit limits, and allows states to use NEG funds to pay up to 75% of health care premiums covered by COBRA for up to ten months.
Baucus/Democrat Bill:	Focuses on increased government spending on unemployment benefits with little emphasis on job creation or economic stimulus to help unemployed Americans get back to work.
President's Approach:	Focuses on providing immediate help to unemployed workers during times of need, but strongly emphasizes economic growth incentives to restore consumer and business confidence to help create new jobs and lower unemployment levels.

- President Bush's Back to Work Relief Package and his economic stimulus principles are the right way to help American workers and America's economy to recover from the September 11 attacks.

ACTION NEEDED NOW TO HELP WORKERS & ECONOMY

Today's Action

- On November 7, the Commerce Department announced that America's productivity during the third quarter rose at an annual rate of 2.7% -- the best performance in over a year. Productivity normally slumps during economic slowdowns, so these new productivity figures are a positive sign for the underlying strength and long-term health of our economy.

- Now is the time for decisive action to help the economy return more quickly to its growth potential. President Bush has asked Congress to enact worker relief and economic stimulus legislation to help America's workers and America's economy to recover from the effects of the September 11 attacks.

- Unfortunately, some members of the Senate Finance Committee are directing their efforts to a partisan, spending-focused grab bag that will do little to help unemployed workers and even less to help create jobs through economic growth.

- The President urges the Senate to work together across party lines to pass a responsible package that will provide immediate help to workers who have lost their jobs or who are concerned about their job security. The Senate will miss an opportunity to help America's economic recovery by engaging in dilatory partisan actions that do not bolster the economy or help workers who need assistance now.

The President's Back to Work Relief Package

- ☑ Temporarily extends unemployment benefits by 13 weeks for Americans who lost their jobs as a direct result of the terrorist attacks.
- ☑ Provides $3 billion in special National Emergency Grants that would be available immediately to help displaced workers maintain health coverage, supplement their income and receive job training. For example, funds could be used to pay up to 75% of health care premiums covered by COBRA for up to ten months.
- ☑ Expedites the ability of states to use $11 billion that is available now, including $3 billion scheduled to revert to the Treasury this year and next, to help low-income workers and their families receive health insurance.
- ☑ Encourages displaced workers to take advantage of more than $6 billion in existing federal programs that provide job search services, including job training and placement.

Why the President's Approach Makes More Sense For Displaced Workers Than The Baucus Bill

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Requires the federal government to create an entirely new federal program – including securing Congressional authorization, developing a formal regulatory process and establishing oversight mechanisms with states – a process that could take 6 months or more.

President's Approach: Delivers immediate health care assistance to workers in need through an additional $3 billion in the National Emergency Grants program at the Department of Labor. The NEG program is an established, effective program that requires no new rulemaking or legislative action by states. Funds could be available to states within a few weeks.

WHITE HOUSE OFFICE OF COMMUNICATIONS (202) 456-2777
FOR MORE INFORMATION ON THE PRESIDENT'S INITIATIVES PLEASE VISIT WWW.WHITEHOUSE.GOV

Baucus/Democrat Bill:	Creates a costly and unprecedented federal mandate on states to expand the unemployment insurance program. The annual cost of this expansion will exceed $10 billion per year, which amounts to a one percentage point increase in the unemployment payroll tax.
President's Approach:	Does not impose new taxes on employers or costly new mandates on states. Provides temporary and complete federal funding to assist states in dealing with extraordinary economic circumstances brought on by the events of September 11.
Baucus/Democrat Bill:	Imposes large mandatory increases in the share of workers' earnings that are replaced by unemployment insurance and structures benefits in a way that would increase unemployment. Numerous studies have found that very high unemployment benefits lead to significantly higher unemployment rates. The vastly increased duration and amounts of unemployment benefits available under all circumstances would create disincentives to take jobs – raising unemployment rates by 5% to 10% or more.
President's Approach:	Provides reasonable extensions of unemployment benefits and support for health insurance costs to help unemployed workers as they transition to new jobs. For example, the President's plan provides an extension of more than 3 months beyond the current 6-month unemployment benefit limits, and allows states to use NEG funds to pay up to 75% of health care premiums covered by COBRA for up to ten months.
Baucus/Democrat Bill:	Focuses on increased government spending on unemployment benefits with little emphasis on job creation or economic stimulus to help unemployed Americans get back to work.
President's Approach:	Focuses on providing immediate help to unemployed workers during times of need, but strongly emphasizes economic growth incentives to restore consumer and business confidence to help create new jobs and lower unemployment levels.

- President Bush's Back to Work Relief Package and his economic stimulus principles are the right way to help American workers and America's economy to recover from the September 11 attacks.

ACTION NEEDED NOW TO HELP WORKERS & ECONOMY

Today's Action

- On November 7, the Commerce Department announced that America's productivity during the third quarter rose at an annual rate of 2.7% -- the best performance in over a year. Productivity normally slumps during economic slowdowns, so these new productivity figures are a positive sign for the underlying strength and long-term health of our economy.

- Now is the time for decisive action to help the economy return more quickly to its growth potential. President Bush has asked Congress to enact worker relief and economic stimulus legislation to help America's workers and America's economy to recover from the effects of the September 11 attacks.

- Unfortunately, some members of the Senate Finance Committee are directing their efforts to a partisan, spending-focused grab bag that will do little to help unemployed workers and even less to help create jobs through economic growth.

- The President urges the Senate to work together across party lines to pass a responsible package that will provide immediate help to workers who have lost their jobs or who are concerned about their job security. The Senate will miss an opportunity to help America's economic recovery by engaging in dilatory partisan actions that do not bolster the economy or help workers who need assistance now.

The President's Back to Work Relief Package

- ☑ Temporarily extends unemployment benefits by 13 weeks for Americans who lost their jobs as a direct result of the terrorist attacks.
- ☑ Provides $3 billion in special National Emergency Grants that would be available immediately to help displaced workers maintain health coverage, supplement their income and receive job training. For example, funds could be used to pay up to 75% of health care premiums covered by COBRA for up to ten months.
- ☑ Expedites the ability of states to use $11 billion that is available now, including $3 billion scheduled to revert to the Treasury this year and next, to help low-income workers and their families receive health insurance.
- ☑ Encourages displaced workers to take advantage of more than $6 billion in existing federal programs that provide job search services, including job training and placement.

Why the President's Approach Makes More Sense For Displaced Workers Than The Baucus Bill

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Requires the federal government to create an entirely new federal program – including securing Congressional authorization, developing a formal regulatory process and establishing oversight mechanisms with states – a process that could take 6 months or more.

President's Approach: Delivers immediate health care assistance to workers in need through an additional $3 billion in the National Emergency Grants program at the Department of Labor. The NEG program is an established, effective program that requires no new rulemaking or legislative action by states. Funds could be available to states within a few weeks.

WHITE HOUSE OFFICE OF COMMUNICATIONS (202) 456-2777
FOR MORE INFORMATION ON THE PRESIDENT'S INITIATIVES PLEASE VISIT WWW.WHITEHOUSE.GOV

Baucus/Democrat Bill:	Creates a costly and unprecedented federal mandate on states to expand the unemployment insurance program. The annual cost of this expansion will exceed $10 billion per year, which amounts to a one percentage point increase in the unemployment payroll tax.
President's Approach:	Does not impose new taxes on employers or costly new mandates on states. Provides temporary and complete federal funding to assist states in dealing with extraordinary economic circumstances brought on by the events of September 11.
Baucus/Democrat Bill:	Imposes large mandatory increases in the share of workers' earnings that are replaced by unemployment insurance and structures benefits in a way that would increase unemployment. Numerous studies have found that very high unemployment benefits lead to significantly higher unemployment rates. The vastly increased duration and amounts of unemployment benefits available under all circumstances would create disincentives to take jobs – raising unemployment rates by 5% to 10% or more.
President's Approach:	Provides reasonable extensions of unemployment benefits and support for health insurance costs to help unemployed workers as they transition to new jobs. For example, the President's plan provides an extension of more than 3 months beyond the current 6-month unemployment benefit limits, and allows states to use NEG funds to pay up to 75% of health care premiums covered by COBRA for up to ten months.
Baucus/Democrat Bill:	Focuses on increased government spending on unemployment benefits with little emphasis on job creation or economic stimulus to help unemployed Americans get back to work.
President's Approach:	Focuses on providing immediate help to unemployed workers during times of need, but strongly emphasizes economic growth incentives to restore consumer and business confidence to help create new jobs and lower unemployment levels.

- President Bush's Back to Work Relief Package and his economic stimulus principles are the right way to help American workers and America's economy to recover from the September 11 attacks.

ACTION NEEDED NOW TO HELP WORKERS & ECONOMY

Today's Action

- On November 7, the Labor Department announced that America's productivity during the third quarter rose at an annual rate of 2.7% -- the best performance in over a year. Productivity normally slumps during economic slowdowns, so these new productivity figures are a positive sign for the underlying strength and long-term health of our economy.

- Now is the time for decisive action to help the economy return more quickly to its growth potential. President Bush has asked Congress to enact worker relief and economic stimulus legislation to help America's workers and America's economy to recover from the effects of the September 11 attacks.

- Unfortunately, some members of the Senate Finance Committee are directing their efforts to a partisan, spending-focused grab bag that will do little to help unemployed workers and even less to help create jobs through economic growth.

- The President urges the Senate to work together across party lines to pass a responsible package that will provide immediate help to workers who have lost their jobs or who are concerned about their job security. The Senate will miss an opportunity to help America's economic recovery by engaging in dilatory partisan actions that do not bolster the economy or help workers who need assistance now.

The President's Back to Work Relief Package

- ☑ Temporarily extends unemployment benefits by 13 weeks for Americans who lost their jobs as a direct result of the terrorist attacks.
- ☑ Provides $3 billion in special National Emergency Grants that would be available immediately to help displaced workers maintain health coverage, supplement their income and receive job training. For example, funds could be used to pay up to 75% of health care premiums covered by COBRA for up to ten months.
- ☑ Expedites the ability of states to use $11 billion that is available now, including $3 billion scheduled to revert to the Treasury this year and next, to help low-income workers and their families receive health insurance.
- ☑ Encourages displaced workers to take advantage of more than $6 billion in existing federal programs that provide job search services, including job training and placement.

Why the President's Approach Makes More Sense For Displaced Workers Than The Baucus Bill

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Requires the federal government to create an entirely new federal program – including securing Congressional authorization, developing a formal regulatory process and establishing oversight mechanisms with states – a process that could take 6 months or more.

President's Approach: Delivers immediate health care assistance to workers in need through an additional $3 billion in the National Emergency Grants program at the Department of Labor. The NEG program is an established, effective program that requires no new rulemaking or legislative action by states. Funds could be available to states within a few weeks.

WHITE HOUSE OFFICE OF COMMUNICATIONS (202) 456-2777
FOR MORE INFORMATION ON THE PRESIDENT'S INITIATIVES PLEASE VISIT WWW.WHITEHOUSE.GOV

Baucus/Democrat Bill:	Creates a costly and unprecedented federal mandate on states to expand the unemployment insurance program. The annual cost of this expansion will exceed $10 billion per year, which amounts to a one percentage point increase in the unemployment payroll tax.
President's Approach:	Does not impose new taxes on employers or costly new mandates on states. Provides temporary and complete federal funding to assist states in dealing with extraordinary economic circumstances brought on by the events of September 11.
Baucus/Democrat Bill:	Imposes large mandatory increases in the share of workers' earnings that are replaced by unemployment insurance and structures benefits in a way that would increase unemployment. Numerous studies have found that very high unemployment benefits lead to significantly higher unemployment rates. The vastly increased duration and amounts of unemployment benefits available under all circumstances would create disincentives to take jobs – raising unemployment rates by 5% to 10% or more.
President's Approach:	Provides reasonable extensions of unemployment benefits and support for health insurance costs to help unemployed workers as they transition to new jobs. For example, the President's plan provides an extension of more than 3 months beyond the current 6-month unemployment benefit limits, and allows states to use NEG funds to pay up to 75% of health care premiums covered by COBRA for up to ten months.
Baucus/Democrat Bill:	Focuses on increased government spending on unemployment benefits with little emphasis on job creation or economic stimulus to help unemployed Americans get back to work.
President's Approach:	Focuses on providing immediate help to unemployed workers during times of need, but strongly emphasizes economic growth incentives to restore consumer and business confidence to help create new jobs and lower unemployment levels.

- President Bush's Back to Work Relief Package and his economic stimulus principles are the right way to help American workers and America's economy to recover from the September 11 attacks.

In Case You Missed It...

- "We see this war as a jihad (holy war). We have not asked for a halt to the fighting – this is up to the United States,' said Mullah Omar's chief of staff, Mohammad Taieb al-Agha. 'Jihad is a religious duty, and it does not violate (the tenets of) Ramadan." (AFP, 11/3/01)

Recent Key Quotes & Developments

- "...this is not a struggle between the West and Islam. In particular that what we are facing is unfortunately those that have hijacked Islam for their own destructive ends." (King Abdullah of Jordan, 11/8/01)
- "...after the initial air strikes they [residents of Kabul] realized that U.S. aircraft were not aiming to bomb civilians." (Anonymous Kabul resident, as reported by Italian newspaper Corriere della Sera, 11/8/01)
- "I am asking now in very strong terms for international assistance to help the Afghan people get rid of the foreign terrorist enemies in Afghanistan. I'm asking for help from the U.S., Europe and Muslim countries to help the Afghan people to regain independence, regain peace and once again live among the nations of the world as a dignified, honorable nation." (Hamid Karzai, opposition leader of Afghanistan's Pashtun majority; ABC News, 11/8/01)
- "During this crisis you might have heard some [school] teachers praising Osama bin Laden and this is a faulty understanding of Islam. Or they reflect the current situation as if it were an agression by crusaders against Islam and Muslims. This of course means that there is zealotry...which does not serve our youth now." (Sheikh Saleh al-Sheikh, Saudia Arabian minister of Islamic affairs; Reuters, 11/8/01)

Message

- The global coalition against terrorism grows stronger every day – every day al-Qaida is becoming more and more isolated.
- The terrorists seek to destroy our freedom and impose its views. We value life, the terrorists ruthlessly destroy it.
- This is a different war, a war on many fronts, against terrorists who operate in more than 60 different countries. And this is a war that must be fought not only overseas but also here at home.
- The President has called our military into action to hunt down the members of the al-Qaida organization who murdered innocent Americans. We gave fair warning to the government that harbors them in Afghanistan. The Taliban made a choice to continue hiding terrorists, and now they are paying the price.
- Our military is pursuing its mission. We are destroying training camps, disrupting communications, and dismantling air defenses. We are now bombing Taliban front lines. We are deliberately and systematically hunting down these murderers and we will bring them to justice.
- Throughout this battle, we adhere to our values. Unlike our enemy, we respect life. We do not target innocent civilians. We care for the innocent people of Afghanistan, so we continue to provide humanitarian aid, even while their government tries to steal the food we send. When the terrorists and their supporters are gone, the people of Afghanistan will say with the rest of the world: good riddance.
- We are at the beginning of our efforts in Afghanistan, and Afghanistan is only the beginning of our efforts in the world. No group or nation should mistake America's intentions: Where terrorist groups of global reach exist, the United States and our friends and allies will seek it out and destroy them.

Facts of the Day

- For humanitarian assistance to Afghanistan, the U.S. government spent $178,607,625 in FY01 and $117,675,527 in FY02 – a total of $296,283,152.
- In recent years, the U.S. government has provided up to 80% of the U.N. World Food Program's appeals for food aid.

In Case You Missed It...

- "We see this war as a jihad (holy war). We have not asked for a halt to the fighting – this is up to the United States,' said Mullah Omar's chief of staff, Mohammad Taieb al-Agha. 'Jihad is a religious duty, and it does not violate (the tenets of) Ramadan." (AFP, 11/3/01)

Recent Key Quotes & Developments

- "...this is not a struggle between the West and Islam. In particular that what we are facing is unfortunately those that have hijacked Islam for their own destructive ends." (King Abdullah of Jordan, 11/8/01)
- "...after the initial air strikes they [residents of Kabul] realized that U.S. aircraft were not aiming to bomb civilians." (Anonymous Kabul resident, as reported by Italian newspaper Corriere della Sera, 11/8/01)
- "I am asking now in very strong terms for international assistance to help the Afghan people get rid of the foreign terrorist enemies in Afghanistan. I'm asking for help from the U.S., Europe and Muslim countries to help the Afghan people to regain independence, regain peace and once again live among the nations of the world as a dignified, honorable nation." (Hamid Karzai, opposition leader of Afghanistan's Pashtun majority; ABC News, 11/8/01)
- "During this crisis you might have heard some [school] teachers praising Osama bin Laden and this is a faulty understanding of Islam. Or they reflect the current situation as if it were an agression by crusaders against Islam and Muslims. This of course means that there is zealotry...which does not serve our youth now." (Sheikh Saleh al-Sheikh, Saudia Arabian minister of Islamic affairs; Reuters, 11/8/01)

Message

- The global coalition against terrorism grows stronger every day – every day al-Qaida is becoming more and more isolated.
- The terrorists seek to destroy our freedom and impose its views. We value life, the terrorists ruthlessly destroy it.
- This is a different war, a war on many fronts, against terrorists who operate in more than 60 different countries. And this is a war that must be fought not only overseas but also here at home.
- The President has called our military into action to hunt down the members of the al-Qaida organization who murdered innocent Americans. We gave fair warning to the government that harbors them in Afghanistan. The Taliban made a choice to continue hiding terrorists, and now they are paying the price.
- Our military is pursuing its mission. We are destroying training camps, disrupting communications, and dismantling air defenses. We are now bombing Taliban front lines. We are deliberately and systematically hunting down these murderers and we will bring them to justice.
- Throughout this battle, we adhere to our values. Unlike our enemy, we respect life. We do not target innocent civilians. We care for the innocent people of Afghanistan, so we continue to provide humanitarian aid, even while their government tries to steal the food we send. When the terrorists and their supporters are gone, the people of Afghanistan will say with the rest of the world: good riddance.
- We are at the beginning of our efforts in Afghanistan, and Afghanistan is only the beginning of our efforts in the world. No group or nation should mistake America's intentions: Where terrorist groups of global reach exist, the United States and our friends and allies will seek it out and destroy them.

Facts of the Day

- For humanitarian assistance to Afghanistan, the U.S. government spent $178,607,625 in FY01 and $117,675,527 in FY02 – a total of $296,283,152.
- In recent years, the U.S. government has provided up to 80% of the U.N. World Food Program's appeals for food aid.

Yes, you and Brad need to come, or at least one of you. The whole reason for having the meeting this morning was to accommodate your schedules (maybe that was Brad's schedule). Would you let me know which one of you will be coming? Let's ride up together. I'll get a car for the West basement at 10:45. HW

I'll check on judges, but I know we had 5 confirmed this week. Yesterday was Wooten. HW

yes, I checked; it was one judge confirmed yesterday (Wooten); that makes 18 judges confirmed out of 64 current nominees for Article III courts.

PRESIDENT BUSH ACTS TO MAKE HOLIDAY AIR TRAVEL SAFER

Today's Action

- President Bush took action today to make holiday travel safer for all Americans and to lay the groundwork for a new federally controlled aviation security system.

- The President announced a 25% increase in National Guard personnel available to Governors to support security at our nation's commercial airports. The troops will provide additional security at airports throughout the busy holiday travel season.

- The President also took action to prepare for a swift transition to a new federally controlled aviation security system. While Congress is finishing the aviation security bill, the President instructed Secretary Mineta to begin a series of high level transition planning sessions with airport operators, law enforcement authorities, security device manufacturers, airline CEOs, and other parties that will play a direct role in the transition to the new system. The President urged Congress to act quickly and send to his desk a bill that will provide the best possible aviation security.

- The President also instructed the Department of Transportation to conduct undercover audits of security performance at airports nationwide to ensure strict compliance with FAA security standards. These audits, conducted by DoT's Inspector General, will help to quickly identify and fix potential problems with airport security.

Background on the Increase in National Guard at Airports

- The President's action significantly boosts the National Guard presence at our nation's airports. Over 6000 National Guard troops are already assisting with security at airports. With today's Presidential action, more than 9000 Guard troops will be deployed at airports through the holiday travel season. The federal government will reimburse states for this deployment.

- The National Guard troops are available at Governors' discretion for the following purposes:

  - Monitoring passenger and baggage screening
  - Monitoring gate activity
  - Securing perimeter control
  - Maintaining access points to terminal ramps
  - Searching vehicles and garages
  - Monitoring curbside activity
  - Guarding air traffic control facilities
  - Securing general aviation facilities that share common property with commercial airports

Previous Bush Administration Actions to Increase Airport Security

- While Congress continues to debate airport security legislation, the Bush Administration has already taken decisive steps to protect the traveling public. The FAA is deploying a core team of 225 security professionals to improve oversight of screening and security functions at airports. This team of professionals will be in place to strengthen existing FAA security presence at airports and, once Congress completes work on the aviation security bill, to assist with the transition to a new airport security system with stronger federal controls.

- On October 30, the Secretary of Transportation ordered FAA special agents to crack down on airport security and directed them to take decisive security measures, such as emptying the concourse, re-screening passenger and holding flights if security is breached. Secretary Mineta has also warned the airlines and existing screening security companies that the FAA will have a "zero tolerance" standard for security breaches.

- The FAA has also taken the following steps:

  - Increased significantly the Federal Air Marshal presence on commercial flights
  - Restricted access to key points at airports and increased airport patrols
  - Increased terminal security by tightening screening procedures and restricting carry-on items
  - Provided grants for fortification of cockpit doors to prevent unauthorized entry into the cockpit. As of November 7, the major airlines have retrofitted 100% of their aircraft with fortified cockpit doors. The airlines estimate that all civilian commercial aircraft will be retrofitted within 30-45 days.

Amigos: greetings, it was good to see you yesterday @ Orlando's event...

As you may know, last month I "inherited" J.C. Benitez' hat as Federal Affairs Liaison for the HNBA...in this capacity, I respectfully ask that you consider meeting with us (Angel Gomez, our new President, from Chicago...and
me) this Thursday, if possible....
In addition, or as an alternative, we could meet with an appropriate Staff member in Justice Gonzales office (?)
The purpose is to (a) get to know each other and (b) discuss matters re: judicial appointments

I will also try to get him together with Margarita Tapia and Bruce Cohen, both with the Senate Judiciary Committee (R/D, respectively)...

Please advise...thanks! Juan Carlos Iturregui

Here is the latest update from McCallum. Notably, the City and the Contractors both appear to be trending towards an effort to expand the liability provisions of the current airline security legislation to include a federal indemnification for the contractors.

Attached you will find the position paper of the contractors, as forwarded to McCallum by the Deputy Mayor NYC.

Helgi: Here is a position paper received from Tony Coles after his conversation with me today. This position paper supposedly comes from the Contractors' rep. who has been interfacing with the City. Robt.

Subject: Indemnification

I tried to reach you yesterday to urge that the City work actively to broaden the indemnification provisions of the aviation security legislation now pending in Washington in the House. As you know, the consultants and construction managers at the World Trade Center site feel extraordinarily vulnerable without written contracts and indemnification provisions that will protect their assets from unwarranted attacks in the courts.

The pending House leadership legislation (H. 3150) and the Democratic substitute (H. 3165) provide an ideal vehicle through which to achieve the indemnification provisions that are being sought by both the City and its construction managers working at Ground Zero. It is my understanding that the so-called managers' amendment, crafted and being offered to attract the votes of the New York, Virginia and Pennsylvania delegations, does provide some broad indemnification provisions and some very specific provisions, included at the urging of the Mayor and Governor Pataki, to hold the aviation industry, including the airlines and the aircraft manufacturers, and the Port Authority, including those who fabricated materials included in the buildings, harmless from liabilities arising out of the events of September 11. It does not appear, according to my sources in Washington, that the hold harmless and indemnifications were extended to those involved in the clean-up resulting from September 11, so that the City of New York, its consultants and its construction managers are still vulnerable.

I am told that there will be a chance to extend more clearly the indemnifications to the City and the construction managers and the a/e firms for the cleanup efforts if the legislation does go to conference today. This may be our only vehicle for getting the indemnification for the City that the Administration feels is the precursor to the provision of indemnification to its contractors. The GCA has already reached out to our two Senators and several House members (Nadler, Towns, McHugh, Reynolds, Quinn, Fossela) on the issue. We stand ready to do anything that we can to help gain the indemnifications for the City that is needed. You may call upon either myself or Rita Schwartz at the Association (212-687-3131) if we can be helpful.

Press Points on Developments in Northern Afghanistan

- The Fall of Mazar e-Sharif and other towns in Northern Afghanistan to anti-Taliban forces advances our objectives of eliminating the Al-Qaida terrorist organization and breaking the Taliban hold on Afghanistan.

- The positive reception of the anti-Taliban forces as liberators is a clear indication that the people of Afghanistan are ready to throw off the oppressive yoke of the Taliban and the Al-Qaida foreigners.

- We look forward to the opening of a corridor from these liberated areas to the borders with Uzbekistan and Tajikistan. This will open up Afghanistan to expanded delivery of humanitarian assistance and reconstruction supplies. In particular, the Friendship Bridge between Uzbekistan and Afghanistan will be cleared of mines and made safe for the passage of these supplies. It will become a "Food Bridge" to feed suffering people.

- This will further reduce the suffering of the Afghan people and show the rest of Afghanistan that life for the entire nation will be better once the Taliban have been removed from power.

- The advance of the anti-Taliban forces has been assisted by defections from disillusioned supporters. It is time for the rest of Afghanistan -- particularly the ethnic groups in the south -- to join the uprising against the Taliban and throw off their oppressive rule. The sooner they act, the greater the benefit.

- The structure of post-Taliban Afghanistan will be for the Afghan people to determine. But we will provide strong diplomatic and economic support to the aspirations of Afghan parties committed to an inclusive, democratic political structure, committed to the welfare of all Afghan men and women, and providing substantial local autonomy. This is a structure in which all Afghan ethnic groups can participate and find their rightful place.

Subject: Follow-up / Hispanic National Bar Association

Amigos: greetings, it was good to see you yesterday @ Orlando's event...

As you may know, last month I "inherited" J.C. Benitez' hat as Federal Affairs Liaison for the HNBA...in this capacity, I respectfully ask that you consider meeting with us (Angel Gomez, our new President, from Chicago...and
me) this Thursday, if possible....
In addition, or as an alternative, we could meet with an appropriate Staff member in Justice Gonzales office (?)
The purpose is to (a) get to know each other and (b) discuss matters re: judicial appointments

I will also try to get him together with Margarita Tapia and Bruce Cohen, both with the Senate Judiciary Committee (R/D, respectively)...

Please advise...thanks! Juan Carlos Iturregui

In Case You Missed It...

- "Liberating it [Afghanistan] from this evil Taliban will only be good for women, men and children. It is a very good war of liberation. The Americans aren't like the Soviet Union, they are not trying to overthrow Muslims for communists. They are helping the Afghans to progress and saving poor Muslims from evil." (The Amir of Bahrain, 11/13/01)

Recent Key Quotes & Developments

- "Small crowds of Kabul residents lined the streets in the north of the city to cheer the arrival of the Northern Alliance forces…they chanted "Allah o Akhbar (God is Great)." (AFP, 11/13/01)
- "The Taliban were also accused of looting as they retreated from Mazar. UNICEF officials said they had taken all the organization's vehicles and communications equipment and its offices had been robbed of computers, furniture and radio equipment." (The Independent [U.K.], 11/13/01)
- "Among the accounts of mutilations, beatings and arbitrary executions there was evidence of a new abomination: the torture of children. An unknown number of infants were savagely beaten during the [Taliban] Islamic militia's 14-month occupation of Taloqan, the former headquarters of the [Northern] Alliance, usually for the supposed crimes of their parents." (The Times [U.K.], 11/13/01)
- "The BBC has confirmed that the central Afghan town of Bamiyan was totally destroyed by the Taliban before they fled over the weekend. Evidence has also emerged of Bosnian-style ethnic cleansing in the region involving the execution of hundreds of local ethnic Hazara men." (BBC, 11/13/01)

Message

- The fall of key cities in Afghanistan to anti-Taliban forces advances our objectives of eliminating the Al-Qaida terrorist organization and breaking the Taliban hold on Afghanistan.
- The positive reception of the anti-Taliban forces as liberators is a clear indication that the people of Afghanistan are ready to throw off the oppressive yoke of the Taliban and the Al-Qaida foreigners.
- We look forward to the opening of a corridor from these liberated areas to the borders with Uzbekistan and Tajikistan. This will open up Afghanistan to expanded delivery of humanitarian assistance and reconstruction supplies. In particular, the Friendship Bridge between Uzbekistan and Afghanistan will be cleared of mines and made safe for the passage of these supplies. It will become a "Food Bridge" to feed suffering people.
- This will further reduce the suffering of the Afghan people and show the rest of Afghanistan that life for the entire nation will be better once the Taliban have been removed from power.
- The advance of the anti-Taliban forces has been assisted by defections from disillusioned supporters. It is time for the rest of Afghanistan -- particularly the ethnic groups in the south -- to join the uprising against the Taliban and throw off their oppressive rule. The sooner they act, the greater the benefit.
- The structure of post-Taliban Afghanistan will be for the Afghan people to determine. But we will provide strong diplomatic and economic support to the aspirations of Afghan parties committed to an inclusive, democratic political structure, committed to the welfare of all Afghan men and women, and providing substantial local autonomy. This is a structure in which all Afghan ethnic groups can participate and find their rightful place.

Everyone, attached is the latest draft of the proposed terrorism litigation management provisions. This one has the federal cause of action triggered by Secretary of the Treasury's determination whether an act of terrorism occurred (under Sec. 5(b) of the latest draft of the insurance provisions of the terrorism insurance bill). This is probably the cleanest way to do it.
I've faxed this over to Viet Dinh at Justice Policy so he might start putting together a supportive letter.

SEC. 15. LITIGATION MANAGEMENT.

(a) FEDERAL CAUSE OF ACTION FOR CLAIMS RELATING TO TERRORIST ACTS.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—Subject to paragraph (2), if the Secretary makes a determination pursuant to section 5(b) that one or more acts of terrorism occurred, there shall exist a Federal cause of action, which, except as provided in subsection (b), shall be the exclusive remedy for claims arising out of, relating to, or resulting from such acts of terrorism.

(2) EFFECT OF DETERMINATION.—A determination referred to in paragraph (1)—

(A) shall not be subject to judicial review;

(B) shall take effect upon its publication in the Federal Register; and

(C) shall be subject to such changes as the Secretary may provide in one or more later determinations made in accordance with the provisions of this paragraph.

(3) SUBSTANTIVE LAW.—The substantive law for decision in any such action shall be derived from the law, including choice of law principles, of the State in which such acts of terrorism occurred, unless such law is inconsistent with or preempted by Federal law.

(4) JURISDICTION.—For each determination under paragraph (1), the Judicial Panel on Multidistrict Litigation shall designate one or more district courts of the United States which shall have original and exclusive jurisdiction over all actions for any claim (including any claim for loss of property, personal injury, or death) brought pursuant to this subsection. The Judicial Panel on Multidistrict Litigation shall select and assign the district court or courts based on the convenience of the parties and the just and efficient conduct of the proceedings. For purposes of personal jurisdiction, the district court or courts designated by the Judicial Panel on Multidistrict Litigation shall be deemed to sit in all judicial districts in the United States.

(5) LIMITS ON DAMAGES.—In an action brought under this subsection for damages:

(A) No punitive damages intended to punish or deter, exemplary damages, or other damages not intended to compensate a plaintiff for actual losses may be awarded, nor shall any party be liable for interest prior to the judgment.

(B)(i) Each defendant in such an action shall be liable only for the amount of non-economic damages allocated to the defendant in direct proportion to the percentage of responsibility of the defendant for the harm to the plaintiff, and no plaintiff may recover noneconomic damages unless the plaintiff suffered physical harm.

(ii) For purposes of clause (i), the term ''noneconomic damages'' means damages for losses for physical and emotional pain, suffering, inconvenience, physical impairment, mental anguish, disfigurement, loss of enjoyment of life, loss of society and companionship, loss of consortium, hedonic damages, injury to reputation, and any other nonpecuniary losses.

(6) COLLATERAL SOURCES.—Any recovery by a plaintiff in an action under this subsection shall be reduced by the amount of collateral source compensation, if any, that the plaintiff has received or is entitled to receive as a result of the acts of terrorism with respect to which the determination under paragraph (1) was made.

(7) ATTORNEY FEES.—Reasonable attorneys fees for work performed shall be subject to the discretion of the court, but in no event shall any attorney charge, demand, receive, or collect for services rendered, fees or compensation in an amount in excess of 20 percent of the damages ordered by the court to be paid pursuant to this section, or in excess of 20 percent of any court-approved settlement made of any claim cognizable under this section. Any attorney who charges, demands, receives, or collects for services rendered in connection with such claim any amount in excess of that allowed under this section, if recovery be had, shall be fined not more than $2,000 or imprisoned not more than 1 year, or both.

(b) EXCLUSION.—Nothing in this section shall apply to or in any way limit the liability of any person who—

(1) attempts to commit, knowingly participates in, aids and abets, or commits any act of terrorism with respect to which a determination under subsection (a)(1) was made, or any criminal act related to or resulting from such act of terrorism; or

(2) participates in a conspiracy to commit any such act of terrorism or any such criminal act.

(c) RIGHT OF SUBROGATION.—The United States shall have the right of subrogation with respect to any claim paid by the United States under this Act.

(d) RELATIONSHIP TO OTHER LAW.—Nothing in this section shall be construed to affect—

(1) any party's contractual right to arbitrate a dispute; or

(2) any provision of the Air Transportation Safety and System Stabilization Act (Public Law 107–42; 49 U.S.C. 40101 note).

Why'd it take so long for 99-0 vote? I'm kidding, but maybe suggesting a tool for tweaking obstreperous hillites.

Hey -

I think Scott is trying to scare up an extra fax machine or two for Counsel's Office.

If at least one can be found and installed sooner rather than later for Brett Kavanaugh in OEOB 156 we would be most appreciative. Brett often works very late nights and on pretty time sensitive and sensitive material tasks so having a fax in his office would be of great help.

Thanks!

Administration Urges Action, Not Posturing, On Economic Plan

TODAY'S ACTION

- Before heading to Texas to continue his summit meeting, President Bush called on the Senate to pass a responsible economic stimulus package. The President told the Senate, "The American people expect progress. And I do, too." Today, Vice President Cheney followed-up on the President's call in a speech to the U.S. Chamber of Commerce. The Vice President urged Congress to pass the right kind of stimulus plan to help America's economy to recover.

- Newly released retail sales figures for October showed a strong 7.1% increase, primarily due to car sales. However, non-motor vehicle retail sales remained relatively low, and cars sold in October came from existing inventory -- not from new, job-creating production.

- To help spur economic growth, America needs Congress to pass the right economic stimulus plan now. The President's approach will increase consumer and business confidence through effective tax relief that helps to restore the rate of job creation and revives business investment.

THE PRESIDENT'S PLAN FOR ECONOMIC GROWTH & WORKER RELIEF

- President Bush supports practical steps to help restore the economic confidence of our country for consumers and businesses and to help workers who lost jobs as a result of the economic fallout from September 11. The President has outlined an economic growth and job creation agenda that focuses on:

    - Accelerating Marginal Tax Rate Reductions: Gives consumers more to spend and invest, and gives businesses and entrepreneurs more resources to help them retain or create more jobs.
    - Partial Expensing: Encourages businesses to invest in new equipment and resources by allowing them to partially expense capital expenditures, allowing them to make purchases they might not otherwise have been able to afford.
    - Eliminating the Corporate AMT: Promotes new investment by businesses by eliminating the corporate alternative minimum tax, which imposes job-killing higher taxes on corporations and small businesses.
    - Tax Relief for Low and Moderate Income Workers: Reduces taxes for low- and moderate-income households beyond relief already approved by Congress, ensuring that the most vulnerable workers will have more money in their pockets.

- The President proposed a Back to Work Relief Package on October 4 to provide help to those workers hardest hit by the economic impact of the attacks. This package would: 1) extend unemployment benefits by 13 weeks for Americans who lost their jobs as a direct result of the terrorist attacks; 2) make $11 billion to states to help low-income workers obtain health insurance; 3) provide $3 billion in special National Emergency Grants to help displaced workers maintain health coverage, supplement their income and receive job training; and 4) encourage affected workers to take advantage of more than $6 billion in existing federal job search, training and placement programs.

- Why President Bush's Approach Is Better: The President's plan is the best approach to get Americans back to work because it emphasizes job creation. Studies suggest that the President's plan will create 300,000 more jobs – 3 times as many jobs as the Senate Democrat plan. Tax relief is efficient and can arrive more quickly than federal spending. And, the President's proposals to aid displaced workers work through proven programs – getting relief to those in need much more quickly than the cumbersome, time-consuming new federal programs in the Senate Democrat bill.

Recent Key Quotes & Developments

- On November 6-8, approximately 5 million Afghan children received polio vaccinations under a U.N.-sponsored program.
- "I feel there were no human rights in Afghanistan," said Torpaki. "Women were not allowed to work or to be educated properly. We were not allowed to leave our house. That means we were in jail." – The Washington Post, November 14, 2001.
- "I am pleased to be able to walk around Kabul...I feel that handcuffs have been taken off my hands." – Shajan, 19, The Daily Mirror, November 14, 2001.
- With the Northern Alliance's gains in the past few days, aid supplies are now flowing more swiftly into Afghanistan. Today, food began to go into Afghanistan by barge and road from Uzbekistan. Deliveries will continue to expand as fast as security allows.

Message

- The steady string of recent military successes are even more important humanitarian successes. We are working around the clock to get as much food, blankets and other humanitarian supplies as possible to the innocent Afghan people who have suffered under the Taliban regime and now must prepare for a harsh winter.
- The fall of key cities in Afghanistan to anti-Taliban forces advances our objectives of eliminating the Al-Qaida terrorist organization and breaking the Taliban hold on Afghanistan.
- The positive reception of the anti-Taliban forces as liberators is a clear indication that the people of Afghanistan are ready to throw off the oppressive yoke of the Taliban and the Al-Qaida foreigners.
- The structure of post-Taliban Afghanistan will be for the Afghan people to determine. But we will provide strong diplomatic and economic support to the aspirations of Afghan parties committed to an inclusive, democratic political structure, committed to the welfare of all Afghan men and women, and providing substantial local autonomy. This is a structure in which all Afghan ethnic groups can participate and find their rightful place.

Facts of the Day

- On 11/14, USAID and the Office of U.S. Foreign Disaster Assistance provided $3,650,000 to the International Rescue Committee to support emergency food assistance, potable water, and new well drilling activities for 100,000 internally displaced Afghans living in camps.
- At any given moment over the past few days, the World Food Program – with U.S. support – had more than 2,000 trucks moving inside Afghanistan, delivering food aid to various parts of the country, rural areas in particular.

In Case You Missed It...

``If anybody has any questions about whether or not we're determined to carry through ... all they have to do is go to Afghanistan today and interview members of the Taliban - if they can find any." – VP Cheney said in a speech before the U.S. Chamber of Commerce.

Recent Key Quotes & Developments

- On November 6-8, approximately 5 million Afghan children received polio vaccinations under a U.N.-sponsored program.
- "I feel there were no human rights in Afghanistan," said Torpaki. "Women were not allowed to work or to be educated properly. We were not allowed to leave our house. That means we were in jail." – The Washington Post, November 14, 2001.
- "I am pleased to be able to walk around Kabul...I feel that handcuffs have been taken off my hands." – Shajan, 19, The Daily Mirror, November 14, 2001.
- With the Northern Alliance's gains in the past few days, aid supplies are now flowing more swiftly into Afghanistan. Today, food began to go into Afghanistan by barge and road from Uzbekistan. Deliveries will continue to expand as fast as security allows.

Message

- The steady string of recent military successes are even more important humanitarian successes. We are working around the clock to get as much food, blankets and other humanitarian supplies as possible to the innocent Afghan people who have suffered under the Taliban regime and now must prepare for a harsh winter.
- The fall of key cities in Afghanistan to anti-Taliban forces advances our objectives of eliminating the Al-Qaida terrorist organization and breaking the Taliban hold on Afghanistan.
- The positive reception of the anti-Taliban forces as liberators is a clear indication that the people of Afghanistan are ready to throw off the oppressive yoke of the Taliban and the Al-Qaida foreigners.
- The structure of post-Taliban Afghanistan will be for the Afghan people to determine. But we will provide strong diplomatic and economic support to the aspirations of Afghan parties committed to an inclusive, democratic political structure, committed to the welfare of all Afghan men and women, and providing substantial local autonomy. This is a structure in which all Afghan ethnic groups can participate and find their rightful place.

Facts of the Day

- On 11/14, USAID and the Office of U.S. Foreign Disaster Assistance provided $3,650,000 to the International Rescue Committee to support emergency food assistance, potable water, and new well drilling activities for 100,000 internally displaced Afghans living in camps.
- At any given moment over the past few days, the World Food Program – with U.S. support – had more than 2,000 trucks moving inside Afghanistan, delivering food aid to various parts of the country, rural areas in particular.

what do you think? WH letterhead? I'm a little negative if this is political. I guess its a matter of how it gets characterized.

Is it OK for KR to send out the following letter to Progress for America folks who met w/ him on a political trip?:

Dear _____,

It was good to see you at the Progress for America briefing. We,re appreciative of all that you and the others at the PFA meeting do for our party and our cause.

The Administration faces some tough challenges ahead, but the President is off to a good start at home and a strong start in the war against global terrorism.

Thanks again for your support.

Terrorism Insurance: A Key to Economic Recovery

"Without full cooperation between our government and America's private industries in support of insurance activities, there could be major disruption in the marketplace and harm to our economy." -- Leslie Baker, Chairman of Wachovia Bank

"This issue is about the economy. If you can't get insurance, you can't get loans. If you can't get loans, you can't construct new buildings. If you can't construct buildings, people cannot go to work. It affects everybody." -- Lisa McGreevy of Financial Services Roundtable

The tragic events of September 11 enacted an economic as well as a human toll. The attacks directly impacted industries such as airlines and hotels, but also have reverberated throughout many other sectors of the economy. Because our military strength and our economic strength are inseparable, our nation must work with resolve to restore economic growth. The current lack of insurance for terrorist acts poses an unnecessary and avoidable barrier to economic recovery.

Lack of Insurance

The terrorist attacks proved that the probability of catastrophic property and casualty losses was much higher than anticipated. Due to the current inability to evaluate the probability of more events or to handle numerous large events in a short time, the reinsurance industry has been reluctant to cover terrorist events. According to Marc Morial, Mayor of New Orleans, "Reinsurers already are saying they will exclude 'acts of terrorism' from coverage on a going-forward basis." Keith Buckley, an insurance analyst with Fitch Ratings Company, states that it is "the universally stated plan of reinsurance companies to add specific terrorism exclusions to reinsurance coverage." Without reinsurance, primary insurers are forced to either exclude terrorism coverage, charge very high premiums, or withdraw from the market entirely:

- On October 31, AIG decided to drop coverage of Brookfield properties, which includes 8 million square feet of office space in lower Manhattan. Brookfield secured a new policy with FM Global Insurance, but the insurance specifically excludes events related to terrorism.
- At Chicago's O'Hare airport, premiums have risen from $125,000 a year to $7 million a year.
- New York's JFK international terminal cannot secure the $1 billion in insurance coverage it needs. Developer Dave Sigman has considered shutting the terminal down.
- Seventeen of the twenty-five property insures that trade with Marsh, Inc. have enacted terrorism exclusions.

Although most state insurance commissioners are unlikely to approve terrorism exclusions to existing policies, insurance companies are free to completely drop coverage of potential targets. In addition, some states allow insurers to adopt exclusions to new policies without approval. Alternatively, insurers may move policies to non-admitted, or so-called "excess and surplus" carriers, which are non-licensed insurers whose policies are not subject to regulatory scrutiny and thus offer less protection to policyholders. Many insurance companies are likely to exercise this flexibility to protect their financial integrity. On October 23, Standard and Poor's warned that insurer ratings could fall if underwriters opted to continue offering terrorism coverage without support from reinsurers or the federal government.

Impact on Construction and Real Estate

Lenders require businesses to insure any property they use to secure loans. Without terrorism coverage, banks may not lend to new construction projects and many existing commercial properties may not be able to change hands. According to Thomas Donohue, President of the U.S. Chamber of Commerce, "Bank loans for major construction project undertakings such as new power plants, pipelines, and commercial office space would sharply decrease without coverage."

Without adequate insurance, it will be difficult to develop, operate, acquire, refinance, or sell property. Thomas J. O'Brien, Senior Vice President of Finance for LCOR Incorporated, argues that the disruption could be widespread: "It will not only affect the real estate owners and lenders but also their tenants who lease facilities, their employees and customers as well as anyone who rents an apartment."

Impact on Banking

The terms of most loans require adequate insurance, and without insurance borrowers may find themselves in technical default on their loan. As a result, lenders could be in a position of accelerating payments under the terms of the loan or calling in the loan in its entirety. If banks do not call the loans, they may be forced to reduce the amount of available credit as they build reserves to protect against a terrorist attack.

Thomas J. O'Brien of LCOR argues that a significant amount of real estate-backed debt runs the risk of being in non-monetary default without the availability of terrorism coverage. According to O'Brien, "This lack of coverage raises profound liquidity concerns not only on existing loans and the institutions that hold them but on the ability of borrowers to secure any type of financing going forward."

Impacted Sectors

The potential disruption will fall primarily on areas of dense economic activity, such as skyscrapers and industrial factories. But it is likely that stadiums, trains, and many other areas will be impacted as well. According to Thomas Donohoe, "without adequate coverage, trucking firms, railroads, airlines, and ships may be unable to transport many types of cargo or may limit their destinations."

Impact on the Overall Economy

The absence of insurance coverage for terrorism risks will likely reduce the willingness of lenders to provide financing for existing commercial structures and deter the construction of new projects. The result could look like a "credit crunch." The Council of Economic Advisers estimates an overall reduction in 2002 GDP of 0.3 percentage point if the problem is not solved. This reduced growth rate of GDP is equal to 0.8 percentage point in the first quarter of 2002, 0.7 percentage point in the second quarter of 2002, and diminishes thereafter. The decline is caused by a reduction in asset values that reduces the consumption purchases of the household sector. In addition, lower valuations reduce the incentive to invest in new structures. The overall liquidity effects also reduce the path for investment in non-residential structures.

Given the underlying weakness of the U.S. economy, it is not prudent to add more uncertainty by allowing insurance markets to fail. According to Steve Dreyer, Managing Director at Standard and Poor's Insurance Rating Service, "Absence of coverage could have a chilling effect on the economy if businesses from airlines to sports teams, to shopping centers curtail or even shut down activity, and if banks prove unwilling to make loans to companies without terrorism coverage." To prevent this disruption, the federal government must take action to provide a temporary backstop until the private sector develops the ability and capacity to insure against terrorist acts.

Talking Points on Terrorism Insurance

- The tragic events of September 11 had a considerable impact on our economy. We must act just as aggressively at home as we are abroad to prevent the U.S. economy from becoming a victim.

- At a time of economic weakness, we simply cannot afford to risk allowing more disruptions to the economy.

- Adequate insurance coverage is an essential component of a growing economy. Without insurance, you cannot get loans or sell existing property.

- The reinsurance industry is refusing to provide coverage against terrorist attacks, so the federal government must temporarily provide a backstop.

- This is not about helping insurance companies; it is about preventing a potential credit crunch and exacerbating an economic downturn.

- The federal government must also provide reasonable legal procedures.

- These procedures must: 1) ensure that victims can quickly recover real losses; 2) protect the taxpayers from spurious claims; 3) prevent unnecessary bankruptcies; and 4) reduce the likelihood that a terrorist attack will significantly burden the economy.

- Unfortunately, our current legal system cannot handle mass tort events.

- The end of the year is fast approaching, so the Congress must act quickly to prevent an unnecessary drag on our economic recovery.

(1) IN GENERAL.—This Act shall not affect suits commenced before the date of the enactment of this Act, except as provided in paragraphs (2) and (3). In all such suits, proceeding shall be had, appeals taken, and judgments rendered in the same manner and with the same effect as if this Act had not been enacted.

(2) SUITS BY OR AGAINST FAA.—Any suit by or against the Federal Aviation Administration begun before the date of the enactment of this Act shall be continued, insofar as it involves a function retained and transferred under this Act, with the Transportation Security Administration (to the extent the suit involves functions transferred to the Transportation Security Administration under this Act) substituted for the Federal Aviation Administration.

(3) REMANDED CASES.—If the court in a suit described in paragraph (1) remands a case to the Transportation Security Administration, subsequent proceedings related to such case shall proceed in accordance with applicable law and regulations as in effect at the time of such subsequent proceedings.

(e) CONTINUANCE OF ACTIONS AGAINST OFFICERS.—No suit, action, or other proceeding commenced by or against any officer in his official capacity as an officer of the Federal Aviation Administration shall abate by reason of the enactment of this Act. No cause of action by or against the Federal Aviation Administration, or by or against any officer thereof in his official capacity, shall abate by reason of the enactment of this Act.

(f) EXERCISE OF AUTHORITIES.—Except as otherwise provided by law, an officer or employee of the Transportation Security Administration may, for purposes of performing a function transferred by this Act or the amendments made by this Act, exercise all authorities under any other provision of law that were available with respect to the performance of that function to the official responsible for the performance of the function immediately before the effective date of the transfer of the function under this Act.

(g) ACT DEFINED.—In this section, the term "Act" includes the amendments made by this Act.

SEC. 142. BUDGET SUBMISSIONS.

The President's budget submission for fiscal year 2003 and each fiscal year thereafter shall reflect the establishment of the Transportation Security Administration.

SEC. 143. LAND ACQUISITION COSTS.

In the case of a grant for land acquisition issued to an airport under chapter 471 of title 49, United States Code, prior to January 1, 1995, the Secretary of Transportation may waive the provisions of section 47108 of such title and provide an upward adjustment in the maximum obligation of the United States under that chapter to assist the airport in funding land acquisition costs (and associated eligible costs) that increased as a result of a judicial order.

SEC. 144. LIMITATION ON LIABILITY FOR ACTS TO THWART CRIMINAL VIOLENCE OR AIRCRAFT PIRACY.

Section 44903 is amended by adding at the end the following:

"(h) LIMITATION ON LIABILITY FOR ACTS TO THWART CRIMINAL VIOLENCE OR AIRCRAFT PIRACY.—An individual shall not be liable for damages in any action brought in a Federal or State court arising out of the acts of the individual in attempting to thwart an act of criminal violence or piracy on an aircraft if that individual reasonably believed that such an act of criminal violence or piracy was occurring or was about to occur.".

SEC. 145. AIR CARRIERS REQUIRED TO HONOR TICKETS FOR SUSPENDED SERVICE.

(a) IN GENERAL.—Each air carrier that provides scheduled air transportation on a route shall provide, to the extent practicable, air transportation to passengers ticketed for air transportation on that route by any other air carrier that suspends, interrupts, or discontinues air passenger service on the route by reason of insolvency or bankruptcy of the other air carrier.

(b) PASSENGER OBLIGATION.—An air carrier is not required to provide air transportation under subsection (a) to a passenger unless that passenger makes alternative arrangements with the air carrier for such transportation within 60 days after the date on which that passenger's air transportation was suspended, interrupted, or discontinued (without regard to the originally scheduled travel date on the ticket).

(c) SUNSET.—This section does not apply to air transportation the suspension, interruption, or discontinuance of which occurs more than 18 months after the date of enactment of this Act.

SEC. 146. AIRCRAFT OPERATIONS IN ENHANCED CLASS B AIRSPACE.

Upon request of an operator of an aircraft affected by the restrictions imposed under Notice to Airmen FDC 1/0618 issued by the Federal Aviation Administration, or any other notice issued after September 11, 2001, and prior to the date of enactment of this Act that restricts the ability of United States registered aircraft to conduct operations under part 91 of title 14, Code of Federal Regulations, in enhanced class B airspace (as defined by such Notice), such restrictions shall cease to be in effect for the affected class of operator beginning on the 30th day following the request, unless the Secretary of Transportation publishes a notice in the Federal Register before such 30th day reimposing the restriction and explaining the reasons for the restriction.

SEC. 147. AVIATION WAR RISK INSURANCE.

Section 44306(b) of title 49, United States Code, is amended by striking "60 days" each place it appears and inserting "1 year".

TITLE II—LIABILITY LIMITATION

SEC. 201. AIR TRANSPORTATION SAFETY AND SYSTEM STABILIZATION ACT AMENDMENTS.

(a) RECOVERY OF COLLATERAL SOURCE OBLIGATIONS OF TERRORISTS.—Section 405(c)(3)(B)(i) of the Air Transportation Safety and System Stabilization Act (49 U.S.C. 40101 note) is amended by striking "obligations." and inserting "obligations, or to a civil action against any person who is a knowing participant in any conspiracy to hijack any aircraft or commit any terrorist act.".

(b) EXTENSION OF LIABILITY RELIEF TO AIRCRAFT MANUFACTURERS AND OTHERS.—Section 408 of that Act is amended—

(1) by striking "air carrier" in the section heading;

(2) by striking subsection (a) and inserting the following:

"(a) IN GENERAL.—

"(1) LIABILITY LIMITED TO INSURANCE COVERAGE.—Notwithstanding any other provision of law, liability for all claims, whether for compensatory or punitive damages or for contribution or indemnity, arising from the terrorist-related aircraft crashes of September 11, 2001, against an air carrier, aircraft manufacturer, airport sponsor, or person with a property interest in the World Trade Center, on September 11, 2001, whether fee simple, leasehold or easement, direct or indirect, or their directors, officers, employees, or agents, shall not be in an amount greater than the limits of liability insurance coverage maintained by that air carrier, aircraft manufacturer, airport sponsor, or person.

"(2) WILLFUL DEFAULTS ON REBUILDING OBLIGATION.—Paragraph (1) does not apply to any such person with a property interest in the World Trade Center if the Attorney General determines, after notice and an opportunity for a hearing on the record, that the person has defaulted willfully on a contractual obligation to rebuild, or assist in the rebuilding of, the World Trade Center.

"(3) LIMITATIONS ON LIABILITY FOR NEW YORK CITY.—Liability for all claims, whether for compensatory or punitive damages or for contribution or indemnity arising from the terrorist-related aircraft crashes of September 11, 2001, against the City of New York shall not exceed the greater of the city's insurance coverage or $350,000,000. If a claimant who is eligible to seek compensation under section 405 of this Act, submits a claim under section 405, the claimant waives the right to file a civil action (or to be a party to an action) in any Federal or State court for damages sustained as a result of the terrorist-related aircraft crashes of September 11, 2001, including any such action against the City of New York. The preceding sentence does not apply to a civil action to recover collateral source obligations."; and

(3) by adding at the end of subsection (c) the following: "Subsections (a) and (b) do not apply to civil actions to recover collateral source obligations.

Nothing in this section shall in any way limit any liability of any person who is engaged in the business of providing air transportation security and who is not an airline or airport sponsor or director, officer, or employee of an airline or airport sponsor.".

(c) LIMITATION OF UNITED STATES SUBROGATION RIGHT.—Section 409 of that Act is amended by striking "title." and inserting "title, subject to the limitations described in section 408.".

(d) DEFINITIONS.—Section 402 of that Act is amended—

(1) by adding at the end of paragraph (1) the following: "The term 'air carrier' does not include a person, other than an air carrier, engaged in the business of providing air transportation security.".

(2) by redesignating paragraphs (3) through (8) as paragraphs (5) through (10), respectively; and

(3) by inserting after paragraph (2) the following:

"(3) AIRCRAFT MANUFACTURER.—The term 'aircraft manufacturer' means any entity that manufactured the aircraft or any parts or components of the aircraft involved in the terrorist related aircraft crashes of September 11, 2001, including employees and agents of that entity.

"(4) AIRPORT SPONSOR.—The term 'airport sponsor' means the owner or operator of an airport (as defined in section 40102 of title 49, United States Code).".

JOINT EXPLANATORY STATEMENT OF THE COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE

The managers on the part of the Senate and House at the conference on the disagreeing vote of the two Houses on the amendment of the House of Representatives to the bill (S. 1447), to improve aviation security, and for other purposes, submit the following joint statement to the Senate and House in explanation of the effects of the action agreed upon by the managers and recommended in the accompanying conference report:

The House amendment struck all of the Senate bill after the enacting clause and inserted a substitute text.

The Senate recedes from its disagreement to the amendment of the House with an amendment that is a substitute for the Senate bill and the House amendment. The differences between the Senate bill, the House amendment, and the substitute agreed to in conference are noted below, except for clerical corrections, conforming changes made necessary by agreements reached by the conferees, and minor drafting and clerical changes.

1. SHORT TITLE

Senate bill

Section 1: "Aviation Security Act".

Section 1: "Airport Security Federalization Act of 2001"

Conference substitute

The title of the legislation will be "The Aviation and Transportation Security Act."

2. FINDINGS

Senate bill

Section 101: 7 findings on the importance of security and the need for Federal control and other changes.

House amendment

No provision

Conference substitute

The conferees recognize that the safety and security of the civil air transportation system is critical to the security of the United States and its national defense, and that a safe and secure United States civil air transportation system is essential to the basic freedom of America to move in intrastate, interstate and international transportation. The conferees further note the terrorist hijacking and crashes of passenger aircraft on September 11, 2001, which converted civil aircraft into guided bombs for strikes against the United States, required a fundamental change in the way it approaches the task of ensuring the safety and security of the civil air transportation system.

REV_00205470

And the House agree to the same.

The Conferees expect that security functions at United States airports should become a Federal government responsibility, and it is their belief that while the number of Federal air marshals is classified, their presence would have a deterrent effect on hijacking and would further bolster public confidence in the safety of air travel. The Conferees also noted that the effectiveness of existing security measures, including employee background checks and passenger pre-screening, is currently impaired because of the inaccessibility of, or the failure to share information among, data bases maintained by different Federal and international agencies for criminal behavior or pertinent intelligence information.

The Conferees developed this legislation to address the security of the nation's transportation system.

3. ORGANIZATION OF SECURITY FUNCTION WITHIN DOT

Senate bill

Section 102: Creates a new Deputy Secretary of Transportation.

Conference substitute

The Conferees believe the best way to ensure effective Federal management of the nation's transportation system is through the creation of a new Administration within DOT to be called the Transportation Security Administration (TSA). The TSA's responsibilities will encompass security in all modes of transportation.

5. PAY OF DEPUTY SECRETARY OR UNDER SECRETARY

Senate bill

Section 127: Paid at level II of the Executive Schedule plus bonuses based on performance.

House amendment

Section 106: Requires the Under Secretary to address the issues listed below and to report 6 months after the date of enactment on the progress being made in implementing each.

A similar report would have to be submitted each year thereafter until all the items had either been implemented or rejected:

(1) Develop procedures (such as barrel roles or depressurizing the aircraft) and authorize equipment (such as lethal or non-lethal weapons) to help the pilot defend the aircraft against hijackers.

(2) After consultation with the FAA, find ways to—

(A) limit access to the cockpit;

(B) strengthen cockpit doors;

(C) use video cameras to alert pilots to problems in the passenger cabin without having to open the cockpit door;

(D) ensure that the aircraft transponder cannot be turned off in flight.

(3) Impose standards for the screening or inspection of vehicles and employees of aircraft fuelers, caterers, cleaners, and others who have access to aircraft and secure areas of airports.

(4) Require airlines to provide emergency call capability from aircraft and trains.

(5) Use various technologies, such as voice stress analysis, to prevent a dangerous person from boarding a plane.

(6) Develop certification standards for individual screeners.

(7) Establish performance goals and use Threat Image Projection (TIP) or similar devices to test whether screeners are meeting those goals or certification standards.

(8) Develop ways for airlines to have access to law enforcement and immigration data bases to ensure that dangerous people do not board their planes.

(9) Use the profiling system known as CAPS to not only give special scrutiny to selected checked baggage but also to the passengers who fit the profile and their carry-on baggage.

(10) Use technology to ensure that airport and airline employees and law enforcement officers are who they claim to be.

(11) Install switches in the passenger cabin so that flight attendants can discreetly notify a pilot if there is a problem.

(12) Change the training of airline personnel in light of the change in the methods and goals of hijackers as evidenced by the attack of September 11th.

(14) Enter into agreements allowing trained law enforcement personnel of other agencies to travel with guns in order to assist a sky marshal.

(15) Perform more thorough background checks (including review of immigration and other government records) of airport screeners, student pilots, and others who have unescorted access to secure areas of the airport.

(16) Establish a uniform system for identifying law enforcement personnel authorized to carry a gun on board to ensure they are who they claim to be.

(18) Develop security procedures for stem cells and other medical containers that cannot be opened or x-rayed.

(19) Develop security procedures to allow musical instruments to be carried in the passenger cabin.

(20) Provide for the use of wireless devices to enable communications among airport security personnel about potential threats.

Conference substitute

The Under Secretary shall decide upon establishing security measures to: ensure that the flight transponder cannot be turned off in flight; require airlines to provide emergency call capability from aircraft and trains; use voice stress analysis, biometric, and other technologies to prevent dangerous persons from boarding a plane; establish a uniform system for identifying law enforcement personnel traveling with firearms to ensure they are who they claim to be; require the consideration of alternative security procedures that would not damage medical products; allow airlines to implement trusted passenger programs to use technology to expedite screening on a voluntary basis; and, provide for the use of technology to enhance communications among airport security personnel about potential threats.The conferees encourage efforts by the Transportation Security Administration and professional organizations representing industry to use biometric information, such as fingerprints collected initially as input to the background check process, for future verification of identity at access control points to secure airport areas. The Conferees applaud efforts to improve day-to-day airport security by utilizing this raw biometric information collected from individuals as a recurrent identifier for access to secure areas. The Conferees urge the Transportation Security Administration to work with industry organizations that can assist in the process of background checks, record-keeping, and universal access control data.

9. TECHNOLOGY AND EQUIPMENT

Senate bill
Section 102(c): Amends 44932(c) to require FAA to ensure the use of the best available security equipment, not merely the best available x- ray equipment.
Section 108: Restates provision in current law requiring manual process where equipment is now underutilized.

House amendment
Section 106: Makes no change in section 44932(c) of title 49, United States Code, but directs Under Secretary to consider requiring various technologies described in item 6 above and report to Congress on them 6 months after enactment and annually thereafter until those technologies are deployed or a decision is made not to deploy them.
Conference substitute
The Conferees want new, state-of-the-art security equipment installed at airports on an expedited basis, and immediate action taken to ensure that existing explosive detection equipment is employed to the greatest extent possible for the screening of checked baggage. It is expected that additional equipment will be installed in as timely a manner as possible, and in the interim, other systems will be used to screen baggage. The Conferees agree that everything going on board a passenger aircraft should be screened within 60 days by FAA-approved methods.

10. AIRWORTHINESS OBJECTIONS BY FAA

Senate bill

Section 102: Must consult with FAA on all matters affecting safety and operations.

House amendment

Section 106: Under Secretary cannot take an action if notified by the FAA that it would adversely affect the airworthiness of the aircraft unless the Secretary approves the action.

Senate bill

No provision.

House amendment

Section 106: In taking an action that could affect safety, Under Secretary shall solicit and give great weight to views of NTSB.

Conference substitute

The Conferees instruct that in taking actions that could affect safety, the timely views of the National Transportation Safety Board (NTSB) will be taken into consideration by the Under Secretary. The conferees wished to emphasize that the views of the NTSB should be provided in a sufficiently and timely manner so those views could be fully considered by the Under Secretary.

12. BIOLOGICAL AND CHEMICAL WEAPONS shares intelligence, reviews emergency rules, and oversees actions of Under Secretary.

Establishes Advisory Council, composed of industry, labor, families, and others to advise Under Secretary on security matters.

Conference substitute

The Conference Report establishes the Transportation Security Oversight Board (TSOB) chaired by the Secretary of DOT and composed of DOJ, DOD, Treasury, CIA, NSC and Homeland Security. The TSOB may review and ratify or disapprove regulations issued by the Under Secretary; facilitate the coordination of intelligence, security and law enforcement activities affecting transportation; and, perform other duties including making recommendations to the Under Secretary for use in combating threats to the integrity of the nation's transportation system.

14. RULEMAKING

Senate bill

No Rules required by DOJ for its own employees; cockpit requirements issuable without APA.

House bill

Section 101: Under Secretary can issue security rules immediately without notice and comment, DOT or OMB review, and without a cost-benefit analysis but subject to disapproval by the TSOB.

Conference substitute

House provision.

15. INSPECTOR GENERAL

Senate bill

No provision.

House bill

Section 101: TSA is subject to the Inspector General Act.

Conference substitute

The Conference report instructs that the Transportation Security Administration (TSA) will be subject to the Inspector General Act.

16. CROSS CHECKING DATA BASES

Senate bill

Section 103(a): DOT, acting through ASOC, shall try to develop a common data base with other agencies and share information about people.

Section 211: DOT, as part of the ASCC, shall conduct a 90-day review of upgrades to the distribution of people on the "watch list" of Federal law enforcement agencies.

Upgrades shall be deployed in 6 months.

A report shall be filed in 18 months.

House bill

Section 106: To the extent that the Under Secretary determines appropriate, the Under Secretary shall (1) establish procedures requiring airlines to use information from government agencies to identify people who may be a threat to civil aviation and (2) require more thorough background checks that include a review of other agency data bases.

REV_00205478

A report is required in 6 months and annually thereafter.

Conference substitute

The Conferees have instructed the Secretary to work with the TSOB to develop a data base that will allow the cross checking of the people on "watch lists" of various Federal law enforcement agencies to identify individuals that may pose a risk to security in an effort to identify potential risks to civil aviation. Passenger lists should be used in conjunction with this data base to help target those individuals that pose a threat, and allow appropriate action to be taken.

17. TERRORISM REPORT

Senate bill

Section 103(b): Require reports on all terrorism. Reports to be shared with DOT.

House bill

No provision.

Conference substitute

The Conference Report requires the intelligence community to ensure that reports on terrorism are shared with the DOT.

18. STRATEGIC PLANNING

Senate bill

Section 103(c): Require intelligence agencies to establish units for strategic planning on terrorism.

House bill

No provision.

Conference substitute

The Conference Report requires intelligence agencies to establish units for strategic planning on terrorism.

19. COCKPIT SECURITY

Senate bill

Section 104: FAA shall issue a rule, without notice and comment, permitting only authorized persons to have access to the cockpit, requiring strengthening the door by installing locks and making them rigid, requiring the door to remain locked during flight except when the pilot needs to get out, and taking away the flight attendants key.

Special rules shall be issued for aircraft that do not have a door.

House bill

Section 106: To the extent the Under Secretary considers appropriate, the Under Secretary shall, after consultation with FAA, implement methods to restrict the opening of the cockpit door during flight and fortify those doors.

A report is required in 6 months and annually thereafter.

Funds are authorized to help airlines pay for this.

Conference substitute

The Conference Report prohibits access to the flight deck of passenger aircraft by anyone other than the flight crew. Flight deck doors must be strengthened and remain locked while aircraft is in flight. Video cameras may be provided to alert pilots to cabin activity in the event of a security breech occurring during the flight.

REV_00205479

These provisions apply to aircraft required to have a door between the flight deck and cabin. The Conferees also seek the redesign of cockpits to ensure the doors are secured at all times during flight. Redesign can encompass new flight deck materials, double doors to the cockpit as are used in Israel, and lavatories within the flight deck so that flight crew do not leave the flight deck. Once bathroom facilities are provided for the flight crew of passenger aircraft, the cockpit door no longer will need to be opened during flight.

The Conferees instruct the Under Secretary to take into consideration the threat to aviation and national security when developing means to secure the flight deck on commuter aircraft. Any new burdens should be appropriate for the risk.

20. AIR MARSHALS

Senate bill

Section 105: Attorney General prescribes guidelines for training and deployment of sky marshals. DOT administers the program in accordance with these guidelines:

(1) Marshals may be placed on every flight but must be placed on every flight that DOT determines to be high risk.

(2) Marshals must be deployed in 30 days.

(3) Marshals must be given a seat even if that means bumping a passenger.

(4) DOT shall work with ICAO and foreign governments to address security concerns on foreign airlines.

(5) DOT may use personnel from other agencies, including the military, as air marshals.

Section 105: Waives age requirements for retired police, military and out-of-work pilots to work as air marshals, if they meet the background and fitness qualifications.

Report required in 18 months.

House bill

Section 105: Under Secretary deploys air marshals, provides for their background checks, trains them, and requires U.S. airlines to provide seats for them at no cost.

Preference for hiring laid off airline pilots as marshals.

Marshals must be placed on selected flights.

Marshals must be given a seat even if that means bumping a passenger.

DOT shall work with foreign governments to address security concerns on international flights from the U.S.

Until the Under Secretary has all the air marshals needed, personnel from other agencies may be used, with the other agency's concurrence, as air marshals on a non- reimbursable basis.

Airlines must provide seats, on a space-available basis, to off-duty marshals flying home.

Conference substitute

The Conference Report requires that appropriately trained, supervised and equipped Federal Air Marshals (FAMs) may be deployed on every scheduled passenger flight, and must be placed on every "high risk" flight, which may include nonstop longhaul flights, or any other flight deemed appropriate, even if the flight is fully booked. For applicants who otherwise meet the background and fitness requirements, age restrictions may be waived to allow retired law enforcement officers, retired members of the armed forces, and members of commercial airline crews who have been furloughed from their positions. Personnel from other agencies may be deployed, with the agency's concurrence, as FAMs until an adequate number of FAMs are in place. Additionally, agreements may be entered into allowing trained law enforcement personnel from other agencies to travel with firearms in order to assist FAMs.

The Conferees instruct the Under Secretary to follow air carrier passenger reservations and cancellation practices to the extent practicable. The Under Secretary should work cooperatively with air carriers to develop guidelines concerning reservations and cancellation for the transportation of Federal Air Marshals.

21. SCREENING

Senate bill

Section 108: Attorney General, in consultation with DOT, shall provide for screening of all passengers, property, mail, and cargo that will be carried aboard an aircraft.

Federal employees shall do screening.

Airport and airline employees shall be screened in the same way, except alternative methods may be used for security personnel.

Attorney General shall use screening technology approved by FAA.

Law enforcement personnel shall be deployed at each screening location.

At the 100 largest airports, additional police may be ordered.

Section 105(f): Report from DOT and DOJ required within 120 days on effectiveness of security screening.

Section 106: DOJ and DOT may permit operational flexibility to tailor screening needs for seasonal variations, aircraft types, and special needs of small airports.

Section 108: Attorney General may require non-hub or smaller airports to use State or local law enforcement if the screening will be equivalent to that at larger airports, the training meets Federal standards, the airport is reimbursed by funds made available by this Act, and the airport is consulted.

House bill

Section 102: Federal government is responsible for screening passengers and property on passenger aircraft that originate in the U.S.. Silent on whether screeners are to be Federal employees or private contractors. Under Secretary shall deputize screeners to enforce Federal laws, but not to arrest people. Screeners must have common uniforms. Must be supervised by uniformed Federal employees.

Section 107: Under Secretary should consider certificating screeners and use TIP or similar technologies to measure their performance and revoke their certification if their performance is inadequate.

Section 104: Airport required to deploy law enforcement or military personnel at each screening location. Law enforcement can be either Federal or local.

Conference substitute

The Conference Report requires the Federal government to hire, train and deploy Federal screeners, Federal managers, Federal security personnel and Federal law enforcement within 1 year. The participants in this Federal security workforce will not be able to strike or engage in work stoppages, and can be fired at the discretion of the Secretary if they are not able to adequately perform their duties.

The Conferees recognize that, in order to ensure that Federal screeners are able to provide the best security possible, the Secretary must be given wide latitude to determine the terms of employment of screeners. The Conference Committee expects that, in fixing the terms and conditions of employment the Secretary shall establish benefits and conditions of employment. The Conference Committee also recognizes that, in order to hire and retain screeners, the Secretary should also ensure that screeners have access to Federal health, life insurance, and retirement benefits, as well as workers' compensation benefits. The Committee believes that screening personnel must also be given whistleblower protections so that screeners may report security conditions without fear of reprisal.

The Conference Report requires the DOT to assume existing screening company contracts as soon as possible, but no later than 90 days after enactment of this legislation. The contracts for existing screeners can be extended for up to 6 months, and the DOT would have the option to extend contracts for no longer than 3 months, if necessary, to continue screening. DOT may also authorize additional Federal law enforcement, National Guard, and other personnel immediately to address the aviation security needs of the country.

The Conferees direct the Secretary to provide a report after one year from the date of enactment certifying deployment of the Federal screeners. Two years after certification airports can opt out of the Federalization of the screener level of the Federal workforce if the Secretary determines that these facilities would continue to provide an equal or higher level of security. Companies will be barred from providing screening if they violate federal standards, are found to allow repeated failures of the system, or prove to be a security risk. The DOT will also establish a Pilot Program for 5 airports, one from each category type, to apply for the use of private contract screeners.

Within 1 year after the date of enactment of the Act, the conferees expect the Transportation Security Administration to submit a report to the Senate Committee on Commerce, Science, and Transportation and the House of Representatives Committee on Transportation and Infrastructure on the screening requirements applicable to passengers boarding, and property being carried aboard, aircraft with 60 seats or less used in scheduled passenger service with recommendations for any necessary changes in those requirements.

22. CITIZENSHIP OF SECURITY FIRMS

Senate bill

No provision.

House bill

Section 104: Must be owned or controlled by a citizen of the U.S. to the extent the President determines that there are such firms.

REV_00205482

Section 123(e): Similar sense of Congress.

Conference substitute

The Conference Report directs that U.S. companies should be used to provide screening if they are available.

23. TRAINING OF PILOTS AND FLIGHT ATTENDANTS

Senate bill

Section 105(f): Report from DOT and DOJ required within 6 months on crew training.

Section 107: DOT shall develop a mandatory airline training program for crews dealing with a hijacking. Training shall be developed in coordination with law enforcement experts.

House bill

Section 106: Under Secretary should consider updating training for dealing with hijacking that includes ways for dealing with suicidal hijackers. Report six months and annually thereafter.

Conference substitute

The Conferees have determined that detailed guidance shall be developed for a mandatory air carrier training program to assist flight crews and attendants in hijack situations. The training curriculum will be developed in consultation with Federal law enforcement agencies with expertise in dealing with these types of threat conditions.

24. HOW FLIGHT ATTENDANTS NOTIFY PILOTS OF A HIJACKING

Senate bill

Section 107: FAA shall revise procedures by which flight attendants notify pilots and implement new measures as soon as practicable.

House bill

Section 106: The Under Secretary should consider requiring the installation of switches in the cabin so that the flight attendants can discreetly notify the pilots.

Conference substitute

The Conference Report directs the Under Secretary to consider the installation of a switch to be located in the cabin for flight attendants to notify pilots in the event of a hijacking without the knowledge of passengers. or other devices

25. PROVISION OF PERSONNEL FROM OTHER AGENCIES

Senate bill

Section 105: Amends section 106(m) to allow other agencies to provide personnel to FAA.

House bill

Section 102(d): Same provision, worded differently.

Conference substitute

The Conferees call upon other agencies to provide personnel that has received the proper training for use by the FAA as Federal air marshals (FAMs) in an effort to support and supplement ~~that~~ the FAM workforce in its early stages.

26. AIRPORT PERIMETER ACCESS SECURITY

Senate bill

REV_00205483

Section 106: DOT may order deployment of law enforcement personnel as needed to bolster airport security by entering into an agreement with another agency to deploy Federal law enforcement at airports.

Section 106(b): FAA shall provide technical support and financial assistance to small airports to help defray security costs.

House bill

No provision.

Conference substitute

The Conferees have given the Secretary the ability to work with the airports to address potential threats at individual facilities by ordering the deployment of Federal law enforcement authorities to improve airport perimeter and access security in an effort to counter potential criminal activities. Such actions also can include providing increased security at air traffic control facilities. Additionally, the FAA Administrator will develop a plan to provide technical support to enable small- and medium-sized airports to enhance their security operations, and shall include using network digital video surveillance systems.

27. INDIVIDUALS WITH ACCESS TO SECURE AREAS OF THE AIRPORT

Senate bill

See item 21

Section 106(a): DOT, in consultation with ASOC, shall consider whether such individuals should be screened.

Section 106(d): Amend 44903(g)(2) to delete 1/31/01 deadline and beef up language on access control requirements.

DOT shall require airlines and airports to develop security awareness programs for employees.

Section 211: Within 6 months, DOT shall recommend to airports commercially available ways to prevent access to secure areas. As part of this, DOT shall review effectiveness of biometric and other systems, focus on eliminating piggy-backing, and include a 12-month deployment strategy for currently available technology at Category X airports. Not later than 18 months, DOT shall conduct a review of reductions in unauthorized access.

House bill

Section 106: The Under Secretary shall consider imposing standards for the screening or inspection of vehicles that have access to secure areas and provide for the use of technology to verify the identity of those vehicles entering a secure area. Report after 6 months and annually thereafter.

Conference substitute

The Conference Report instructs that all individuals, goods, property, vehicles, and other equipment seeking access to secure areas must be screened and inspected before entry. The Conference Committee instructs that prescribed requirements should provide at least the same level of protection as the screening of passengers and baggage. The Conferees, however, recognize that these requirements may make allowances for tools and equipment necessary to perform duties in secure areas. The Secretary will examine the physical configuration of individual airports, and consider the views of the TSOB to consider implementing standards to protect the integrity of secure areas.

28. BAN ON PARKING OF VEHICLES WITHIN 300 FEET OF TERMINAL

Senate bill

Section 106(b): FAA, in consultation with local law enforcement, shall reexamine the need for 300 feet restriction.

House bill

Section 121: Removes this parking ban if the airport, in consultation with local law enforcement, certifies to DOT, after doing a threat assessment, that safeguards are in place to protect public safety.

Conference substitute

The Conferees have determined that all airports must consult with local law enforcement and inform DOT that proper safeguards are in place to ensure that parked vehicles are not a security risk. Each airport must submit views regarding its assessment of the needs of their facility.

29. CHECKED BAGGAGE

Senate bill

See item 9

Section 201(b)(1): Requirement for all baggage to be screened within 9 months.

FAA must establish within 60 days confidential goals for scanning a specific percentage of checked bags within 6 months and annual goals thereafter eventually scanning 100%.

Section 201(c) - page 85FAA shall require airlines to upgrade the bag match system. Shall establish goals within 60 days to accomplish this including interim measures to match a higher percentage of bags until bomb detectors are used to scan 100% of bags.

House bill

See item 9

Section 106: All checked baggage must be screened by December 31, 2003. All existing explosive detection equipment must be used to the maximum extent possible.

Additional explosive detection equipment must be installed as soon as possible.

In the interim, airlines must implement a bag match program.

A system must be in place as soon as possible to screen cargo transported in passenger aircraft.

Section 123(d): Sense of Congress that all checked baggage should be screened by any available means.

Conference substitute

The Conferees feel strongly that all baggage to be placed on passenger flights must be screened. Existing technology, including EDS, should be used and upgraded in an effort to ensure that all checked baggage goes through such a system. Any baggage that does not go through EDS will be required to go through some form of manual or other comparable screening system. An alternate system of screening cargo should also be established, and periodic reports issued to provide an understanding of the progress made on these efforts.

REV_00205485

30. COMPUTER ASSISTED PASSENGER PROFILING SYSTEM (CAPPS)

Senate bill

Section 201(d): FAA shall make all passengers subject to CAPPS even if they don't check bags so that their carry-ons and person will be subject to additional security measures. Report within 3 months.

Section 211: DOT, as part of the ASCC, shall conduct a 90-day review of upgrades to CAPPS and to the distribution of people on the "watch list" of Federal law enforcement agencies. Upgrades shall be deployed in 6 months. A report shall be filed in 18 months.

House bill

Section 106(9): The Under Secretary should consider providing the enhanced use of CAPPS to more effectively screen passengers and carry-on baggage. Report in 6 months and annually thereafter.

Conference substitute

The Conference Report instructs that an enhanced and upgraded use of the Computer Assisted Passenger Pre-Screening System (CAPPS) must be considered to more effectively screen passengers and baggage. The Conferees also recognize that adjustments may need to made ~~for~~ to reflect circumstances in some areas of the U.S., including State with unique transportation needs.

31. DEPUTIZING FOR ENFORCEMENT OF FEDERAL SECURITY LAWS

Senate bill

Section 108(b): Requires Attorney General to deputize State and local law enforcement to regulate screening at non-hubs.

House bill

Private contractor employees deputized.

Conference substitute

No provision.

32. HIRING AND TRAINING OF SCREENERS

Senate bill

Section 109: DOJ, in consultation with DOT, shall establish a program for the hiring and training of screeners. Hiring qualifications shall be set in 30 days. Includes list of qualifications screeners must meet such as education and language requirements. Training plans must be developed within 60 days. Requires 40 hours of classroom training and 60 hours of on the job training. Current lists of dual use items (seemingly harmless items that could be used as a weapon) shall be part of the training. Senate bill

Section 109(e): Strikes prohibited pursuant to Title 5.

House bill

Section 102: Strikes prohibited.

Conference substitute

The Conference Report directs that the airport screening workforce will be prohibited from striking. The Conferees have provided the Transportation Security Administration authority to utilize existing authority provided to the FAA to develop personnel and acquisition systems. The authority gives the Administration flexibility to design its own policies and procedures and not use the FAA's system, while retaining the legal requirements under sections 40110 and 40112.

36. BACKGROUND CHECKS

Senate bill

Section 109(f): Requires background checks for current screeners and others with access to the airport.

Section 201(a): Requires background checks for current screeners and others to be completed in 9 months unless the person has had such a check in the past 5 years. Alternative checks shall be developed for those who have lived in the U.S. for less than 5 years.

House bill

Section 107: Allows smaller airports to use the same expedited procedures for criminal history background checks as the larger airports now use. (Under the 2000 Security Act these expedited procedures do not go into effect at smaller airports until 2003.)

38. FLIGHT SCHOOLS

Senate bill

Section 111: Regarding jet-propelled aircraft, a person shall not give flight instruction, including instruction in simulator, to an alien (or other person specified by DOT) unless DOJ issues that person a certificate of completion of the background check of the alien. Requests for the background check shall be made jointly by the alien and the flight school. Investigation must be completed in 30 days. Investigation includes fingerprint check, immigration check, and a determination of whether alien in a national security risk. Expedited procedures shall be developed for an alien seeking recurrent training. Penalties for violations shall be developed by DOT rulemaking. Flight schools shall report aliens that they train.

Section 111(c): DOT and State shall work with ICAO to improve screening of student pilots.

House bill

Section 106(13): The Under Secretary should consider requiring background checks on individuals seeking flying lessons (including simulator lessons) on aircraft weighing more than 12,500 pounds. Report in 6 months and annually thereafter until the Under Secretary implements the checks or decides not to require them.

Conference substitute

The Conferees have determined that flight school training for aircraft with a minimum certificated weight of 12,500 pounds or more should not be allowed for any alien within the United States unless they have passed a sufficient background check. Such individuals seeking to attend flight school may begin pilot training after 45 days or upon being certified as having passed a background investigation regarding their criminal history and immigration status. A security awareness program will be developed to assist employees that work at flight schools by helping to increase their awareness of a potential threat.

39. PENALTIES

Senate bill

Section 114: Imposes criminal penalties for interfering with security personnel at a commercial service airport.

House bill

Section 116(c): Transfers the relevant civil penalty authorities from the FAA to the TSA.

Conference substitute

The Conference Report requires that an individual who disrupts the duties of security screening personnel within a commercial service airport shall be fined and/or imprisoned for up to 10 years. The use of a dangerous weapon to interfere with security screening may result in up to life imprisonment.

Senate bill

Section 116: DOT may grant antitrust exemptions to ensure continued viability of air service in that State.

House bill

No provision.

Conference substitute

The Conference Report instructs that DOT may grant anti-trust immunity to ensure continued viability of air service within a state. If the Secretary approves any such request, a report must be given to the relevant Senate and House Committees within six months of the approval describing what actions have been taken by the carriers receiving the exemption.

41. AIRLINE COMPUTER RESERVATION SYSTEMS

Senate bill

Section 117: DOT shall require all airlines to use the best technology to ensure that their systems are secure from unauthorized access. DOT shall submit an annual report on compliance.

House bill

No provision.

Conference substitute

Under the direction of the Conference Report airlines are required to take action that will prevent unauthorized access to computer reservation systems and the information they contain on passengers. Technology should be utilized to the greatest extent possible to ensure the integrity of these systems.

42. FEES

Senate bill

Section 118(a): Within 180 days, airlines remit a $2.50 fee per enplanement.

House bill

Section 108: Under Secretary shall impose a fee of not more than $2.50 per one-way trip. The amount of the fee shall be reasonably related to the costs of providing the screening service. In addition, a fee can be imposed directly on the airlines but it cannot be more than the airlines paid for screening services in 2000. Fees shall be credited as off-setting collections. Passengers using airports where screening services are not provided may be exempted from the fee.

Conference substitute

The Conference substitute requires a fee to be charged to cover the cost of providing the aviation security services. The fee will be based on the number of times a passenger boards a plane during the course of travel, but will be capped at $5.00 per one-way trip. Any additional funds needed will be authorized to be appropriated or may come from a fee imposed directly on the airlines.

The Secretary may waive or modify the security fee to take into account the isolation of certain communities. In determining whether to waive or modify this fee, the Secretary shall consider the costs of transportation security and the benefits of transportation security that is bestowed on those communities.The Conference substitute amends section 45301(b) of title 49, United States Code, with respect to limitations on overflight fees to (1) to make the language consistent with the new security fee language of this Act, and (2) to clarify Congressional intent with respect to the FAA costs upon which the fees can be based. Specifically, the conference substitute replaces the word "directly" with "reasonably", since the word "directly" has been a source of much confusion and narrow interpretation, and has been a primary cause of recurring litigation which has frustrated and delayed the FAA's imposition of the overflight fees for a number of years. Additionally, this amendment specifies that the FAA's costs upon which the fees are based are to be determined solely by the Administrator. This is to clarify that the Administrator has full authority to determine costs by appropriate means. This amendment is not intended to require revision of the fees recently promulgated by the FAA (66 FR 43680, Aug. 20. 2001) but rather, to clarify longstanding Congressional intent that the FAA expeditiously and continuously collect the fees authorized under section 45301(a) of title 49.

43. AUTHORIZATION

Senate bill

Section 118(b): Authorizes such sums for the next 3 years as may be necessary to carry out the security functions.

House bill

Section 109: Authorizes such sums as may be necessary to the TSA for operating costs and for screening services not covered by the above fee.

Authorizes $500 million for grants to airlines to fortify cockpit doors, install video monitors to view the passenger cabin, ensure continuous operation of transponder, and use of other technologies.

Conference substitute

The Conference Report authorizes the necessary spending for the cost of providing aviation security.

44. AIRPORT FUNDING

Senate bill

REV_00205490

Section 119(a): Allows AIP and PFC funds to be used to pay security costs in FY 2002 for any cost incurred after 9/11 regardless of when it was incurred. Waives the local matching share. In deciding whether to make a discretionary AIP grant for security costs, the availability and use of non-Federal funding by the airport shall be considered.

Section 120: Authorizes such sums in 2002 to compensate airports for security costs. Costs must be documented and subject to an IG audit. DOT shall publish procedures for filing claims in 30 days.

Section 119(c): PFC requests for security funding should be expedited.

Section 119(b): For the purpose of determining AIP entitlements in FY 2003, enplanements in 2000 or 2001, whichever is higher, shall be used.

Section 201(b): Modifying terminal and baggage systems in order to install bomb detection equipment is made AIP eligible.Section 113: Allows AIP and PFC funds to be used to pay for added law enforcement costs in at a non-hub or small hub airport regardless of when the cost was incurred.

Waives the local matching share.

In FY 2002, allows AIP and PFC money to be used to pay debt service if that would prevent an airport, or privately owned terminal, from defaulting on its bond.

House bill

Section 109: Authorizes a total of $1.5 billion in 2002 and 2003 to reimburse airports for direct costs they incurred to meet new security requirements. Such sums to remain available until expended. Before getting the money, the airport must agree to meet with its concessionaires to discuss rent adjustments and provide an itemized list of costs incurred.

A blend of the House and Senate provisions.

House bill

Section 106: DOT cannot take any action to prevent a pilot from taking a gun into the cockpit if the policy of the airline allows it and the pilot has completed a training program acceptable to the Under Secretary.

Conference substitute

A pilot is authorized to carry an approved firearm into the cockpit if approved by the Under Secretary and the air carrier, and the pilot has received proper training.

48. ISOLATED COMMUNITIES

Senate bill

Section 123: During an emergency, DOT, after consulting with the ASCC, may grant waivers on flight restrictions to allow flights carrying freight, mail, patients, and medical supplies to areas with extraordinary transportation needs given isolation of the area and if the waiver is in the public interest.

House bill

Section 120: Similar provision but worded differently.

Conference substitute

The Conference Report instructs that during an emergency DOT may grant waivers on flight restrictions to areas with extraordinary transportation needs.

49. SUPPLIES ON BOARD AIRCRAFT

Senate bill

Section 124: DOT shall ensure the safety of food and other supplies on aircraft by sealing packages, screening personnel and vehicles, etc.

House bill

See item 27

Conference substitute

The Conferees have determined that DOT should establish procedures to ensure the safety and security of on-board supplies for intrastate passenger aircraft. The Secretary will establish procedures that may increase security for the point of origin of the supplier, provide for sealed supplies, and the screening of the supplies as they enter the airport.

50. AIRMAN REGISTRY

Senate bill

Section 126: Directs FAA to modify the registry to make it more effective in combating terrorism. FAA should work with State and locals to assist in identifying those applying for or holding airmen certificates.

52. RESULTS-BASED MANAGEMENT

Senate bill

Section 127: With 60 days, DOT shall establish acceptable performance levels for aviation security and provide Congress with an action plan clarifying the responsibilities of the government agencies involved. Each year, a performance plan shall be made available. Any contracts to implement this Act shall try to maximize the use of performance based service contracts.

55. AIRSPACE RESTRICTIONS

Senate bill

Section 129: President shall submit a report within 30 days describing any airspace restrictions that remain in place and the justification for those restrictions.

House bill

Section 119: The restrictions on Class B airspace shall cease to be in effect 10 days after enactment unless a notice is published prior to the 10th day reimposing and explaining the reasons for those restrictions.

Conference substitute

The Conferees instruct the Secretary to lift restrictions on Class B airspace under specified requirements.

56. VOLUNTEERS

Senate bill

Section 130: DOT shall carry out a program to permit police, firefighters, and paramedics to provide emergency services during flight. Exempts from liability those who help in an emergency. This does not authorize the possession of firearms.

Senate bill

Section 131: FAA shall begin a security program for aircraft over 12,500 pounds within 90 days. Waivers from this requirement can be granted. A security program for smaller aircraft shall begin in 1 year. A report shall be filed in 18 months.

Aircraft may not be sold or leased to an alien unless a background check has been done or until the security programs described above are implemented.

House bill

No provision.

Conference substitute

The Conference report directs the Secretary to provide Congress a report on improving general aviation security in the United States within 3 months of enactment of the legislation.

The Conferees note that a number of issues on aviation security research merit the prompt attention of the Department of Transportation. In particular, the Conferees observe that research into providing better security with minimal disruption in the system in the area of general aviation is important.

The Conferees note that the FAA has recently designated a consortium of schools as a general aviation center of excellence and anticipates that the FAA would draw upon the expertise of these institutions in formulating a security program for general aviation.

The Conferees also note that NASA, in coordination with the DOT, is investigating technology that would facilitate remote screening of small aircraft prior to takeoff.

Such a general aviation remote screening system (GARSS) could be installed on a vehicle or mobile platform, or in a fixed facility alongside a taxiway, and would provide a pre-takeoff alert if suspicious objects or materials were detected aboard an aircraft.

The Conferees urge that the development and implementation of GARSS be pursued.

59. FUNDING FOR GENERAL AVIATION AIRPORTS

Section 114: Amends the Airline Stabilization Act to modify the method for distributing compensation to air ambulances.

Conference substitute

The Conference Report amends the Airline Stabilization Act to allow for a modified system of providing compensation to air tour operators and air ambulances to better address their needs after industry wide losses. It is the Conferees' position that the Stabilization Act's section 103 compensation formula language, "revenue ton miles or any other auditable measure" should be broadly construed and should not restrict compensation exclusively to Revenue for Miles reported on previously filed DOT Form 41s. If Air, Crew, Maintenance, Insurance lessors can provide accurate and auditable records of their revenue for miles during the relevant time period, then they should be eligible for compensation based under the Stabilization Act.

Title II:

Conference substitute

The Conference substitute extends the liability limitations of the Air Transportation Stabilization Act to aircraft manufacturers, State port authorities, owners and operators of airports, and persons with property interests in the World Trade Center.

These provisions limit liability under the Act to the maximum level of their insurance coverage.

REV_00205498

Any person with a property interest in the World Trade Center, as a condition to receiving liability protection under the Act, is required to satisfy all contractual obligations to rebuild or assist in the rebuilding of the World Trade Center.

The Conference substitute also limits the liability for all claims arising from the terrorist-related attacks of September 11, 2001, brought against the City of New York to the greater of the City's insurance coverage or $350,000,000.

This limitation on damages against the City of New York, however, does not apply to any non-government or private entity that is contracted with the City.

The Conference substitute also excludes entities primarily engaged in the business of airport security from its limitation on liability.

JOINT EXPLANATORY STATEMENT OF THE COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE

The managers on the part of the Senate and House at the conference on the disagreeing vote of the two Houses on the amendment of the House of Representatives to the bill (S. 1447), to improve aviation security, and for other purposes, submit the following joint statement to the Senate and House in explanation of the effects of the action agreed upon by the managers and recommended in the accompanying conference report:

The House amendment struck all of the Senate bill after the enacting clause and inserted a substitute text.

The Senate recedes from its disagreement to the amendment of the House with an amendment that is a substitute for the Senate bill and the House amendment. The differences between the Senate bill, the House amendment, and the substitute agreed to in conference are noted below, except for clerical corrections, conforming changes made necessary by agreements reached by the conferees, and minor drafting and clerical changes.

1. SHORT TITLE

Senate bill

Section 1: "Aviation Security Act".

House amendment

Section 1: "Airport Security Federalization Act of 2001"

Conference substitute

The title of the legislation will be "The Aviation and Transportation Security Act."

2. FINDINGS

Senate bill

Section 101: 7 findings on the importance of security and the need for Federal control and other changes.

House amendment

No provision

Conference substitute

The conferees recognize that the safety and security of the civil air transportation system is critical to the security of the United States and its national defense, and that a safe and secure United States civil air transportation system is essential to the basic freedom of America to move in intrastate, interstate and international transportation. The conferees further note the terrorist hijacking and crashes of passenger aircraft on September 11, 2001, which converted civil aircraft into guided bombs for strikes against the United States, required a fundamental change in the way it approaches the task of ensuring the safety and security of the civil air transportation system.

REV_00205505

And the House agree to the same.

The Conferees expect that security functions at United States airports should become a Federal government responsibility, and it is their belief that while the number of Federal air marshals is classified, their presence would have a deterrent effect on hijacking and would further bolster public confidence in the safety of air travel. The Conferees also noted that the effectiveness of existing security measures, including employee background checks and passenger pre-screening, is currently impaired because of the inaccessibility of, or the failure to share information among, data bases maintained by different Federal and international agencies for criminal behavior or pertinent intelligence information.

The Conferees developed this legislation to address the security of the nation's transportation system.

3. ORGANIZATION OF SECURITY FUNCTION WITHIN DOT

Senate bill

Section 102: Creates a new Deputy Secretary of Transportation.

House amendment

Section 101: Creates a new Transportation Security Administration (TSA) within DOT headed by an Under Secretary. Establishes qualifications. Sets 5-year term. TSA has same procurement and personnel authority as the FAA.

Conference substitute

The Conference Report creates the Transportation Security Administration (TSA) to be headed by an Under Secretary within the DOT.

4. FUNCTIONS OF DEPUTY SECRETARY OR UNDER SECRETARY

Senate bill

Section 102(a): Coordinate and direct the functions of DOT and FAA under Chapter 449.

Work with the FAA on actions that affect safety.

Coordinate with DOJ, DOD, and other agencies on matters related to aviation security.

Coordinate transportation and actions of other agencies during an emergency. (This does not supersede the authority of any other agency.)

Establish uniform standards for transportation during an emergency.

Provide notice to other agencies about threats during an emergency. The Secretary defines what constitutes an emergency.

Take other actions, the Secretary shall prescribe.

House amendment

Section 101: Under Secretary will be responsible for security in all modes of transportation. Specifically, Under Secretary is responsible for the following:

Receiving, assessing, and distributing intelligence information to the appropriate people in the transportation community.

Assessing threats to transportation.

Coordinating with other agencies.

Serve as the liaison with the intelligence community.

REV_00205507

Supervising airport security using Federal uniformed personnel.
Manage the Federal security personnel in the field
Enforce security regulations.
Undertake research to improve security.
Inspect, maintain, and test security equipment.
Ensure that adequate security is provided for the transportation of cargo.
Oversee the security at airports and other transportation facilities.
Perform background checks on screeners and those who work at airports.
Develop standards for the hiring and firing of screeners.
Train and test screeners.

Conference substitute

The Conferees believe the best way to ensure effective Federal management of the nation's transportation system is through the creation of a new Administration within DOT to be called the Transportation Security Administration (TSA). The TSA's responsibilities will encompass security in all modes of transportation.

5. PAY OF DEPUTY SECRETARY OR UNDER SECRETARY

Senate bill

Section 127: Paid at level II of the Executive Schedule plus bonuses based on performance.

House amendment

Section 101(c): Paid at level II of the Executive Schedule ($141,300 in 2000).

Conference substitute

The Conferees direct that the Under Secretary is to be paid at Level II of the Executive Schedule ($141,300 in 2000). A bonus, not to exceed thirty percent of the annual salary may be provided based on the performance of the US to be determined by the Secretary.

6. REPORTS

Senate bill

Section 102(a): Annual report of activities.
Section 127: Annual DOT report on results achieved relative to the agency security performance plan.
Section 112: 60-day report on additional security measures.
Section 133: 120-day report on the new DOJ responsibilities for aviation security.
Section 113: 3-month report on how to improve security of general aviation and air charters.

House amendment

Section 106: Eliminates existing report in section 44938 of title 49, United States Code.

(House)

6A. ENHANCED SECURITY

Senate bill

REV_00205508

Section 115: 120 day report on the following issues:

(1) Requiring verification of airport employees' identity.

(2) Installing switches so flight attendants can notify pilots of a hijacking.

(3) Revalidating airline and airport employee identification cards.

(4) Updating strategy for dealing with hijackings.

(5) Technology to improve communication between aircraft and ground facilities.

Section 211: DOT shall study options for improving positive IDs of passengers at check-in counters and boarding areas. Report required in 6 months.

House amendment

Section 106: Requires the Under Secretary to address the issues listed below and to report 6 months after the date of enactment on the progress being made in implementing each.

A similar report would have to be submitted each year thereafter until all the items had either been implemented or rejected:

(1) Develop procedures (such as barrel roles or depressurizing the aircraft) and authorize equipment (such as lethal or non-lethal weapons) to help the pilot defend the aircraft against hijackers.

(2) After consultation with the FAA, find ways to—

(A) limit access to the cockpit;

(B) strengthen cockpit doors;

(C) use video cameras to alert pilots to problems in the passenger cabin without having to open the cockpit door;

(D) ensure that the aircraft transponder cannot be turned off in flight.

(3) Impose standards for the screening or inspection of vehicles and employees of aircraft fuelers, caterers, cleaners, and others who have access to aircraft and secure areas of airports.

(4) Require airlines to provide emergency call capability from aircraft and trains.

(5) Use various technologies, such as voice stress analysis, to prevent a dangerous person from boarding a plane.

(6) Develop certification standards for individual screeners.

(7) Establish performance goals and use Threat Image Projection (TIP) or similar devices to test whether screeners are meeting those goals or certification standards.

(8) Develop ways for airlines to have access to law enforcement and immigration data bases to ensure that dangerous people do not board their planes.

(9) Use the profiling system known as CAPS to not only give special scrutiny to selected checked baggage but also to the passengers who fit the profile and their carry-on baggage.

(10) Use technology to ensure that airport and airline employees and law enforcement officers are who they claim to be.

(11) Install switches in the passenger cabin so that flight attendants can discreetly notify a pilot if there is a problem.

(12) Change the training of airline personnel in light of the change in the methods and goals of hijackers as evidenced by the attack of September 11th.

REV_00205509

(13) Provide for background checks for those seeking flying lessons on large aircraft or flight simulators of such aircraft.

(14) Enter into agreements allowing trained law enforcement personnel of other agencies to travel with guns in order to assist a sky marshal.

(15) Perform more thorough background checks (including review of immigration and other government records) of airport screeners, student pilots, and others who have unescorted access to secure areas of the airport.

(16) Establish a uniform system for identifying law enforcement personnel authorized to carry a gun on board to ensure they are who they claim to be.

(17) Allow airlines to implement trusted passenger programs to use technology to expedite screening for those passengers that wish to participate.

(18) Develop security procedures for stem cells and other medical containers that cannot be opened or x-rayed.

(19) Develop security procedures to allow musical instruments to be carried in the passenger cabin.

(20) Provide for the use of wireless devices to enable communications among airport security personnel about potential threats.

Conference substitute

The Under Secretary shall decide upon establishing security measures to: ensure that the flight transponder cannot be turned off in flight; require airlines to provide emergency call capability from aircraft and trains; use voice stress analysis, biometric, and other technologies to prevent dangerous persons from boarding a plane; establish a uniform system for identifying law enforcement personnel traveling with firearms to ensure they are who they claim to be; require the consideration of alternative security procedures that would not damage medical products; allow airlines to implement trusted passenger programs to use technology to expedite screening on a voluntary basis; and, provide for the use of technology to enhance communications among airport security personnel about potential threats.The conferees encourage efforts by the Transportation Security Administration and professional organizations representing industry to use biometric information, such as fingerprints collected initially as input to the background check process, for future verification of identity at access control points to secure airport areas. The Conferees applaud efforts to improve day-to-day airport security by utilizing this raw biometric information collected from individuals as a recurrent identifier for access to secure areas. The Conferees urge the Transportation Security Administration to work with industry organizations that can assist in the process of background checks, record-keeping, and universal access control data.

CAN

7. RESPONSIBILITY OF THE ATTORNEY GENERAL

Senate bill

Section 102(b): Responsible for screening, including the hiring and training of screeners.

House amendment

No provision—The Under Secretary is responsible for screening.

REV_00205510

Conference substitute
No provision.

8. TRANSITION

Senate bill
Section 102(d): Until Deputy Secretary takes office, the functions are performed by the Assistant Administrator of the FAA.
Section 108: Transition to Attorney General immediate. Actions completed in 9 months.
House amendment
Section 101: Under Secretary shall assume civil aviation security responsibilities in 3 months. In the meantime, Under Secretary can take over airline contracts with screening companies.
No change until Under Secretary is appointed.
Conference substitute
The Conferees direct the Under Secretary to assume responsibility for civil aviation security within 3 months of the enactment of this legislation.

9. TECHNOLOGY AND EQUIPMENT

Senate bill
Section 102(c): Amends 44932(c) to require FAA to ensure the use of the best available security equipment, not merely the best available x- ray equipment.
Section 108: Restates provision in current law requiring manual process where equipment is now underutilized.
Section 132: By September 30, 2002, FAA shall decide the feasibility of implementing technologies designed to protect aviation and automatically detect bombs, drugs, hazardous chemicals, and nuclear devices.
Section 201(b): FAA shall deploy and use existing bomb detection equipment. Within 60 days, FAA shall establish goals for—
(1) deploying equipment now in storage;
(2) specifying a percentage of checked bags to be scanned within 6 months, with a goal of scanning 100 percent;
(3) the number of bomb detectors that will be purchased for deployment at medium sized airports within 6 months. [See item 29.]
House amendment
Section 106: Makes no change in section 44932(c) of title 49, United States Code, but directs Under Secretary to consider requiring various technologies described in item 6 above and report to Congress on them 6 months after enactment and annually thereafter until those technologies are deployed or a decision is made not to deploy them.
Conference substitute
The Conferees want new, state-of-the-art security equipment installed at airports on an expedited basis, and immediate action taken to ensure that existing explosive detection equipment is employed to the greatest extent possible for the screening of checked baggage. It is expected that additional equipment will be installed in as timely a manner as possible, and in the interim, other systems will be used to screen baggage. The Conferees agree that everything going on board a passenger aircraft should be screened within 60 days by FAA-approved methods.

10. AIRWORTHINESS OBJECTIONS BY FAA

Senate bill

Section 102: Must consult with FAA on all matters affecting safety and operations.

House amendment

Section 106: Under Secretary cannot take an action if notified by the FAA that it would adversely affect the airworthiness of the aircraft unless the Secretary approves the action.

Conference substitute

House provision.

11. ROLE OF NATIONAL TRANSPORTATION SAFETY BOARD (NTSB)

Senate bill

No provision.

House amendment
